CHAMPS/ Life Skills Program

In 1995, WVU initiated CHAMPS/Life Skills on campus. This model for programming helps student-athletes prepare for the challenges faced during and after college. Five "commitment" areas are part of WVU's model: 1) academic excellence, 2) personal development, 3) career development, 4) athletic excellence, and 5) community service.
See www.msnsportsnet.com/page.cfm?section=12102

A 1-credit, student-athlete-focused orientation course (SEP 170) is offered in the fall and spring semesters to help freshmen and transfer student-athletes adjust to college life.

A 1-credit special topics course (SEP 493) is offered in the fall and spring semesters for junior and seniors to help transition from college to the world of work or graduate school.

Confidential, free personal counseling, career counseling and sport psychology performance consultation is available to all student-athletes. Visit psychologist and program coordinator Dr. Ed Etzel in Rm. 275a of the Coliseum, call 293-7062 or e-mail edward.etzel@mail.wvu.edu.

A vital part of the CHAMPS Life Skills program is the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), consisting of 2 student-athlete leaders from each varsity team. See www.msnsportsnet.com/page.cfm?section=12109.

For more information log on to www.msnsportsnet.com/page.cfm?section=12102. You can also visit CHAMPS/Life Skills office and GA Samantha Monda in Room 288 of the Coliseum or contact her at wvuchamps@gmail.com/ or 293-2300 x 5192.

The facility features 30 computer stations, four tutoring rooms, eight small group study stations and a library-style open study area

Athletes can use the stadium or Coliseum study centers between classes or after practice in the evening

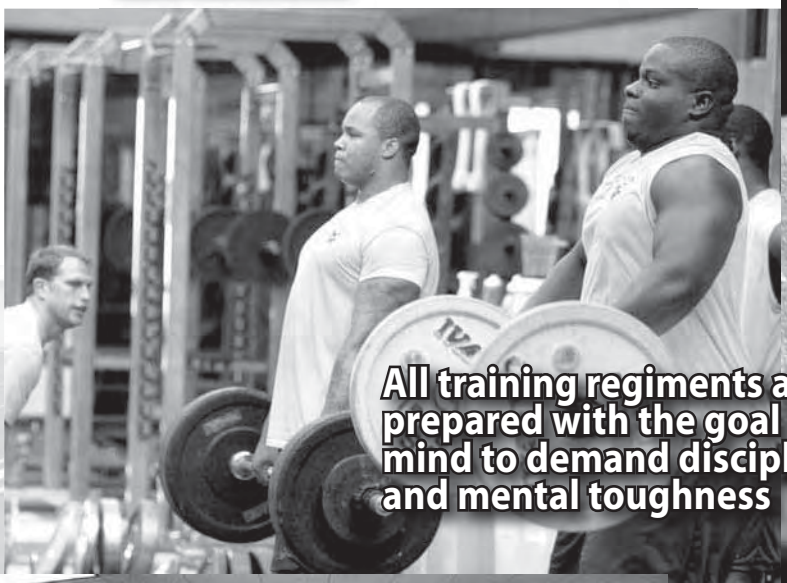
IRON MOU

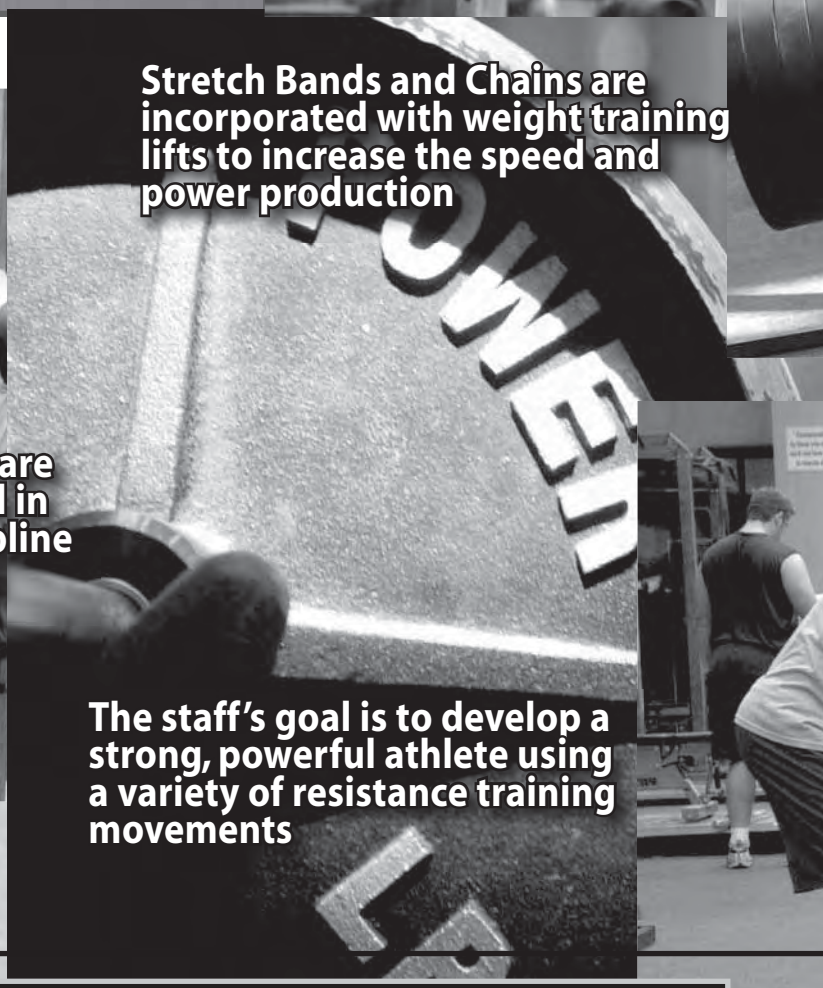
THE GOAL OF THE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING STAFF IS TO PROVIDE THE STUDENT-ATHLETES WITH THE BEST "HANDS-ON" STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING PROGRAM IN THE COUNTRY ...

WVU nutritionists give guidance on proper eating habits

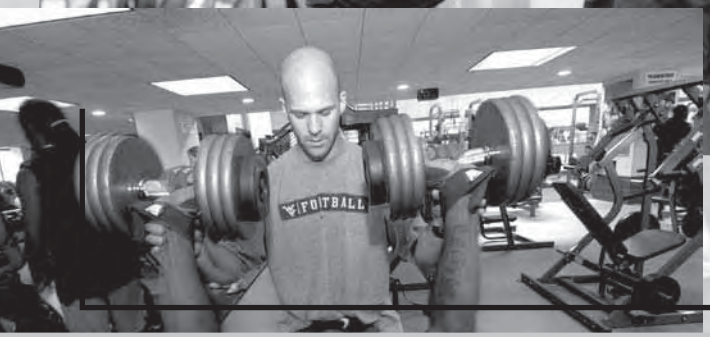
The staff's goal is to be outstanding teachers, especially in the areas of safety, technique and nutrition



All training regiments are prepared with the goal in mind to demand discipline and mental toughness



Stretch Bands and Chains are incorporated with weight training lifts to increase the speed and power production



The staff's goal is to develop a strong, powerful athlete using a variety of resistance training movements

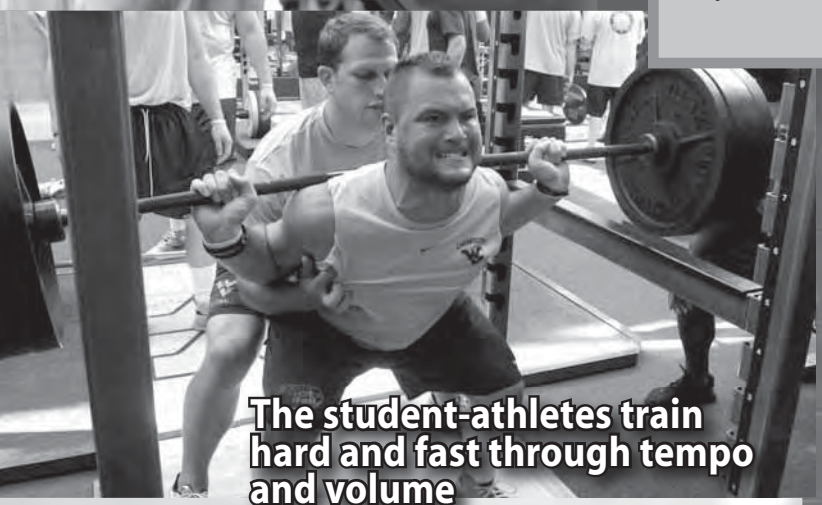
TAINEERS

All training protocols are designed and implemented to benefit the student-athlete's athletic preparedness for competition

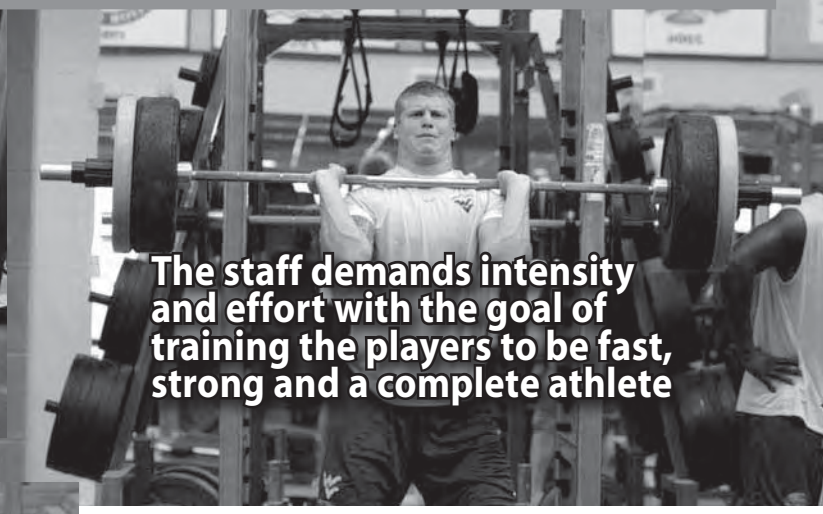
New Weight Room Equipment

Woodway Force Treadmill -- A speed/conditioning tool that allows our athletes to reach new levels of acceleration and physical conditioning. It incorporates a variable resistance belt allowing for increased force production during acceleration.

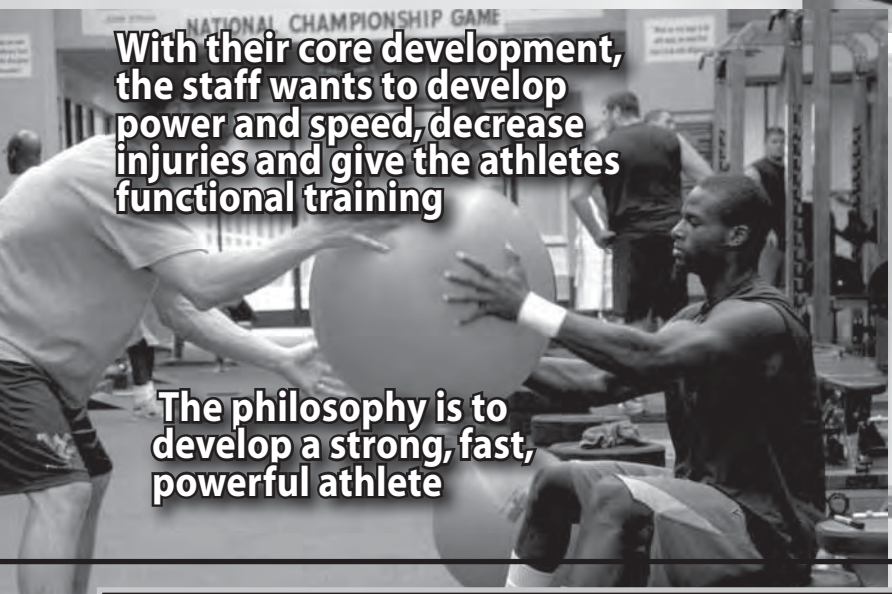
Hypoxico Chamber (Altitude Training) - Altitude training involves exercising and breathing in an oxygen reduced air for the purpose of improved athletic performance, pre-acclimatization to altitude and/or physical wellness.



The student-athletes train hard and fast through tempo and volume

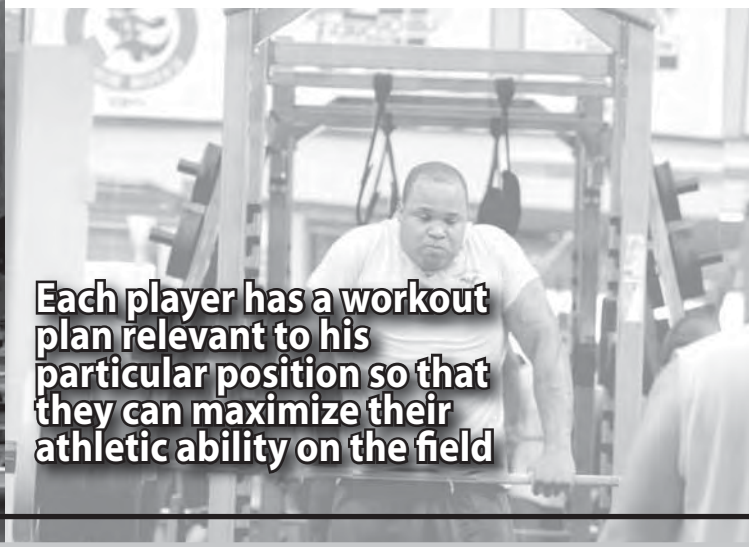


The staff demands intensity and effort with the goal of training the players to be fast, strong and a complete athlete



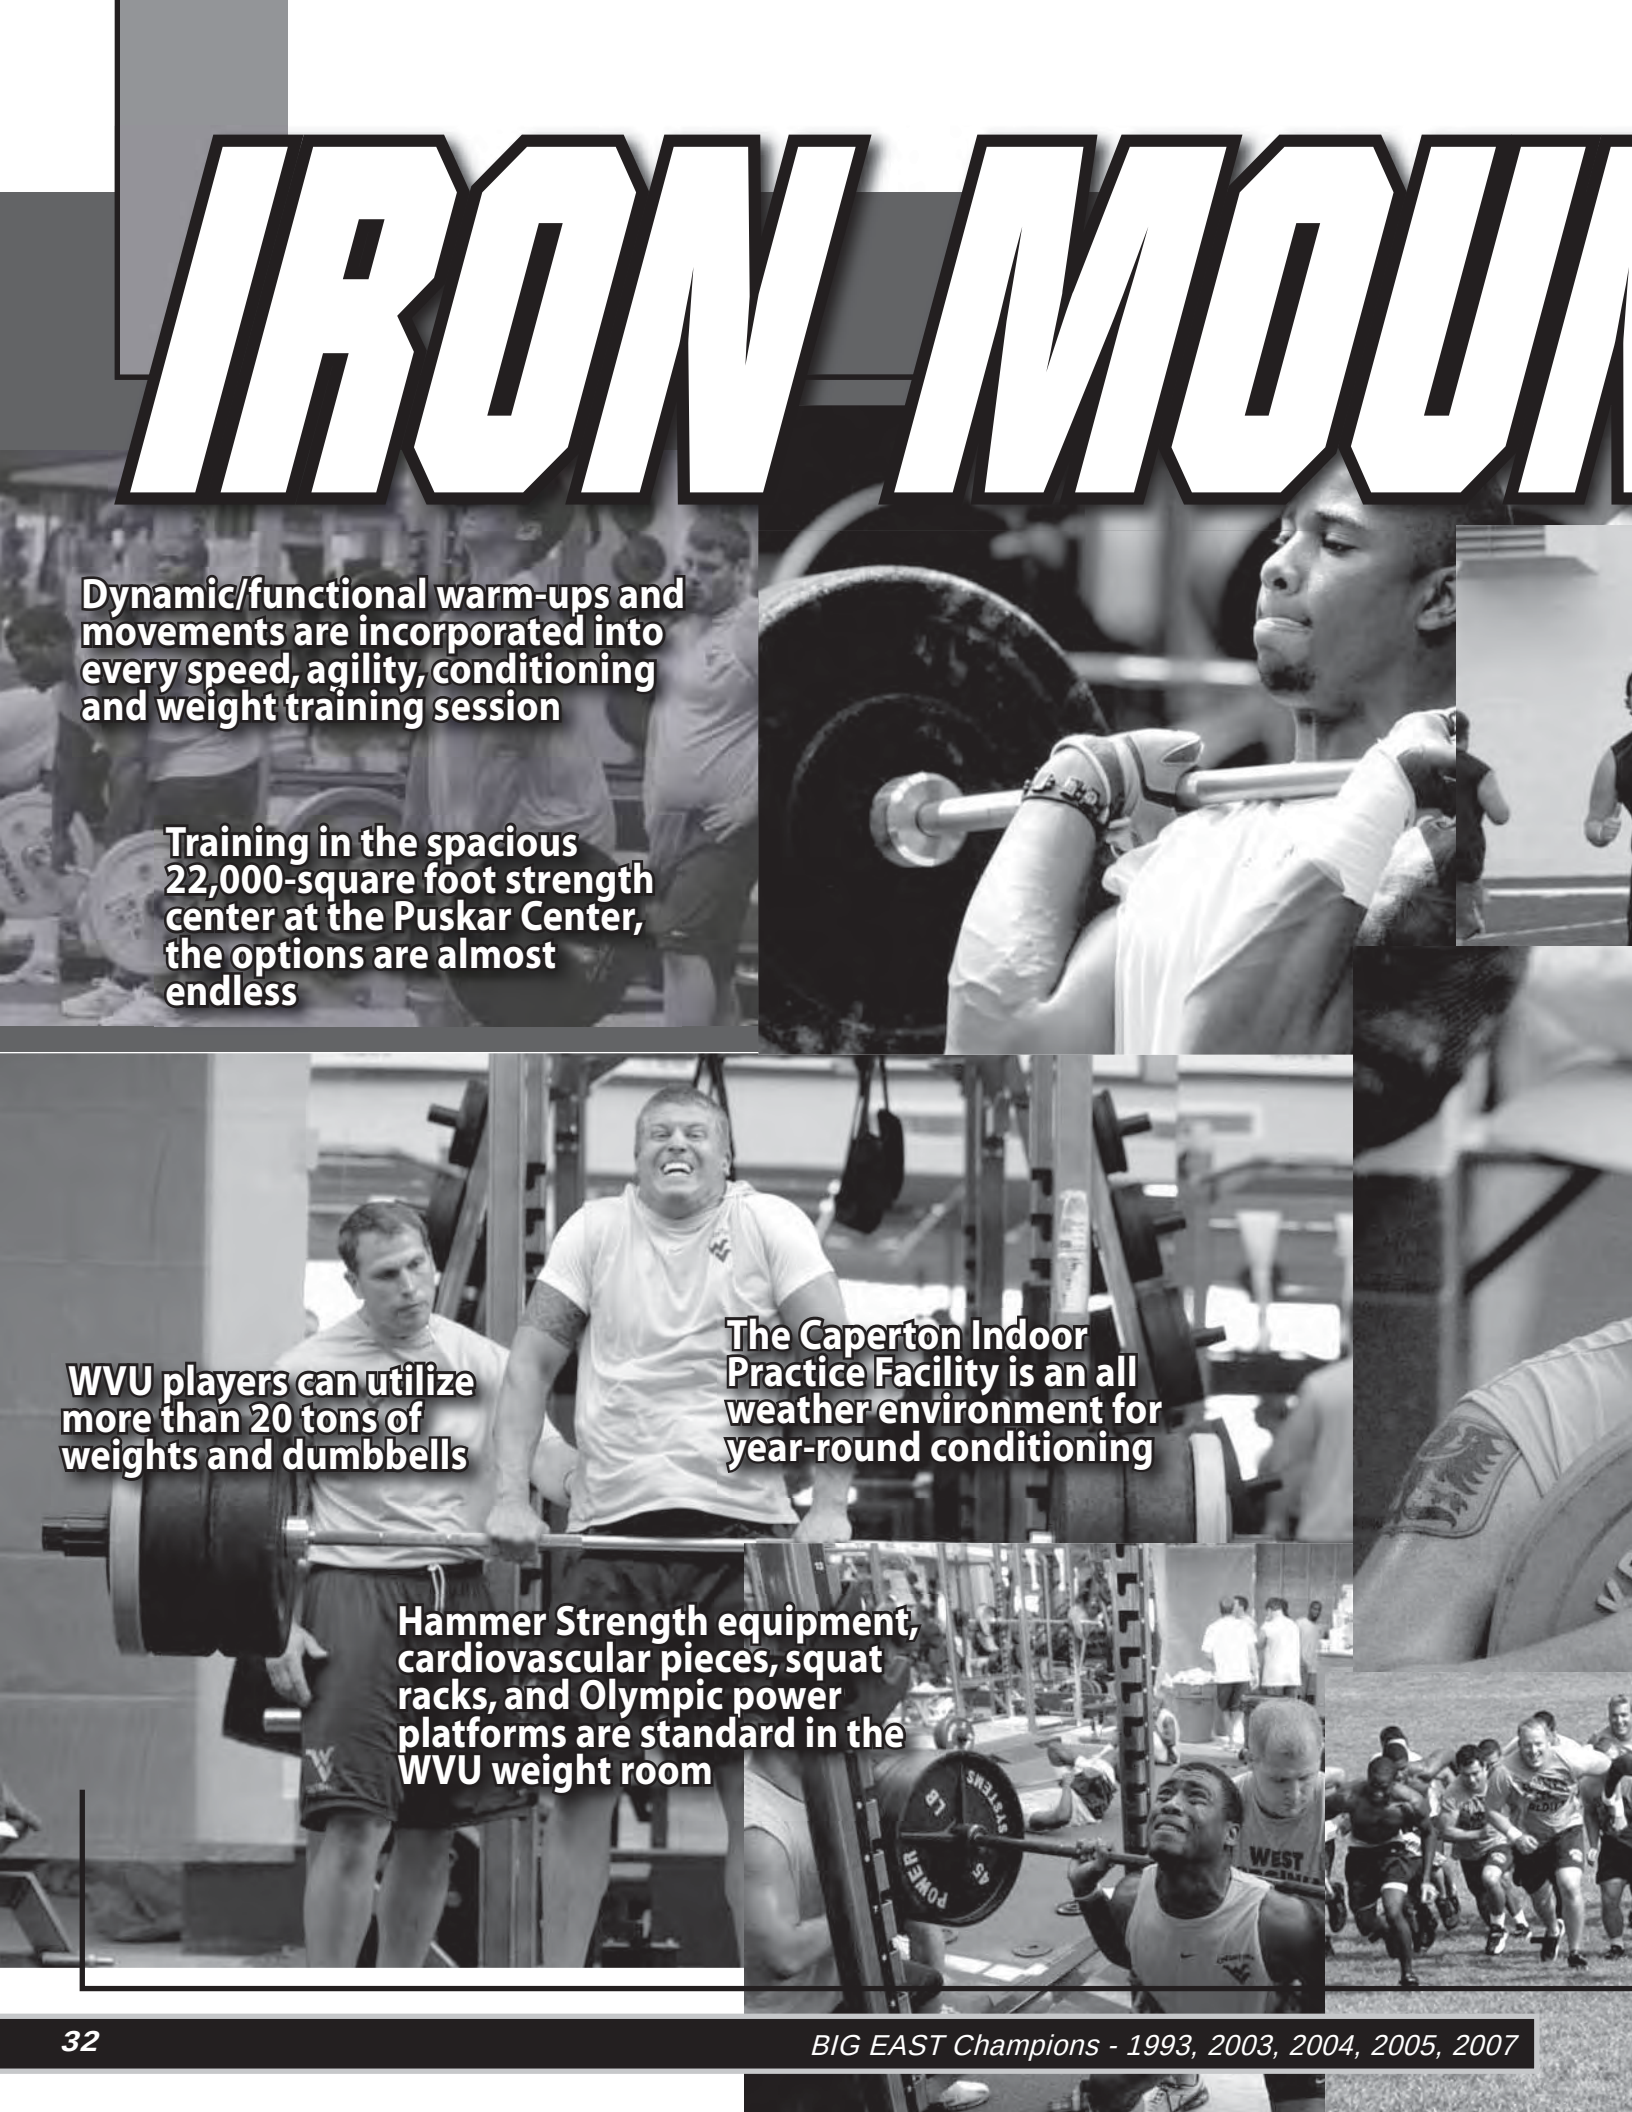
With their core development, the staff wants to develop power and speed, decrease injuries and give the athletes functional training

The philosophy is to develop a strong, fast, powerful athlete



Each player has a workout plan relevant to his particular position so that they can maximize their athletic ability on the field

IRON MOU



Dynamic/functional warm-ups and movements are incorporated into every speed, agility, conditioning and weight training session

Training in the spacious 22,000-square foot strength center at the Puskar Center, the options are almost endless

WVU players can utilize more than 20 tons of weights and dumbbells

The Caperton Indoor Practice Facility is an all weather environment for year-round conditioning

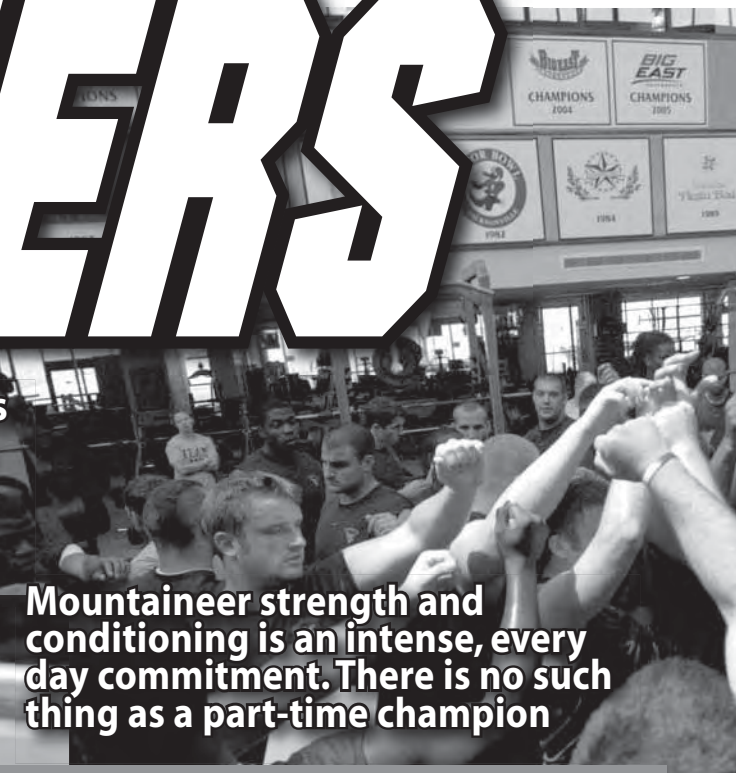
Hammer Strength equipment, cardiovascular pieces, squat racks, and Olympic power platforms are standard in the WVU weight room

TAINEERS

Every school in America develops its athletes from the neck down, but at WVU, the Mountaineers build excellence in the physical and mental aspects of the game.

Mountaineer strength and conditioning breeds camaraderie and team bonding

In the heat of the summer, there is no challenge like running the infamous Law School Hill



Mountaineer strength and conditioning is an intense, every day commitment. There is no such thing as a part-time champion

NATIONAL POLLS

The final poll of the 2007 season marked the 41st consecutive week West Virginia has been nationally ranked. The Mountaineers have been ranked in the Top 10 in 29 of the last 32 weeks. Since 2002, West Virginia has been ranked in the Top 25 for 57 weeks, including 31 weeks in the Top 10. In the Nov. 25 poll, the No. 1 ranking in the USA Today Coaches' Poll marks the first time in the school's history that the Mountaineers have received a No. 1 ranking. The highest ranking before that was No. 2 in the 1993 season.

THE NUMBERS FROM TWO, THREE, FOUR AND FIVE

The West Virginia Mountaineers have been one of the best teams in college football over the last five years. WVU's two-year record (2006-07) of 22-4 is tied for fifth-best in college football behind only Ohio State (23-3), Boise State (23-3), Hawaii (23-4), and LSU (23-4). The Mountaineers are tied with USC and BYU.

West Virginia's three-year record (2005-07) of 33-5 is second-best in college football behind only USC (34-5) and tied with Ohio State.

West Virginia's four-year record of 41-9 is tied for sixth-best in college football behind only USC (47-5), Texas (44-7), Boise St. (43-8), LSU (43-9), and Auburn (42-9). WVU is tied with Ohio State.

And finally, West Virginia's five-year record of 49-14 is 10th-best in college football. In the five-year time span, West Virginia has the fifth best road record (23-8) and 12th-best home record (26-6) in college football.

BETTER FROM FOUR

West Virginia has won 41 football games in the last four years to set the best four-year win mark in school history, 41-8 (2004-07).
That breaks the previous mark of 38-12 that was set from 2003-06. Prior to that, the 2002-05 teams held the best four-year win total in school history with 36 victories.

Before 2002, West Virginia won 35 games from 1981-84, and 33 from 1969-72 and 1922-25.

WHITE'S A WINNER

Heading into his senior season, quarterback Pat White, who has a 2 is the top running threat in the nation and is one of the leading Heisman Trophy candidates. He needs 724 more rushing yards to become the top rushing quarterback in NCAA history passing Missouri's Brad Smith.

White finished sixth in last year's Heisman Trophy race, is a two-time BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year and a two-time bowl offensive most valuable player.

He has been featured on several preseason magazine covers and was selected to the prestigious Playboy All-American team. He also has been a unanimous selection as the BIG EAST Offensive MVP.

A two-time team MVP, White has led the Mountaineers to a 26-4 record as the starting quarterback, two BIG EAST Championships, three-straight New Year day wins and three-straight Top 10 national finishes.

Last season, he led the team with 1,335 yards rushing and 14 touchdowns and threw for 1,724 yards and 14 touchdowns, while completing 66.7 percent of his passes.

LOOK INTO WHITE'S NUMBERS

Senior quarterback Pat White has recorded 3,501 yards rushing, 39 touchdowns and is averaging 7.1 yards a rush over his three-year career. He has thrown for 4,207 yards and 35 touchdowns.

He is in fourth place on the all-time rushing list and needs 1,669 yards to become the school's all-time rushing leader. He already owns the all-time rushing mark bv a quarterback and needs 13 more rushing touchdowns to become the all-time leader.

White is currently the school's career leader in completion percentage and passing efficiency. He also is No. 6 in WVU passing touchdowns, No. 8 in WVU career completions and in all-purpose yardage.

A DEVINE RUNNER

Sophomore running back Noel Devine enters his second season for the Mountaineers after showing signs of outstanding running ability in his rookie season.

Entering this season as one of the top running backs in the BIG EAST, Devine was a unanimous preseason selection to the All-BIG EAST team and was named to several All-American teams.

He finished third in rushing for the Mountaineers with 627 yards, six touchdowns and an 8.6 yards per carry average.

He had three 100-yard rushing performances, including his season-high 136 yards against Maryland, where he averaged 27.2 yards a carry and tied a school record with a 76-yard non-touchdown run.

Devine also had 100-yard performances in two of his last three games, collecting 118 yards and a touchdown against Connecticut and 108 yards and two touchdowns against Oklahoma in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

OL RECEIVES PRESEASON RECOGNITION

All five starters return for the WVU offensive line this season and have received top national billing by several preseason publications. Athlon Sports selected the Mountaineer line as the best in the nation, and Lindy's ranks them as the fourth-best line.

All-American seniors Ryan Stanchek (LT) and Greg Isdaner (LG) lead the group, posting 29 and 22 starts, respectively. All-BIG EAST performers Jake Figner (RG) and Mike Dent (C) return with 22 and 13 starts and Selvish Capers (RT) who earned the starting right tackle position returns with six starts.

The "O" line helped the offense average 456.2 yards of total offense a game in 2007, including 297.2 yards on the ground, ranking No. 3 nationally. The offense is averaging 39.6 points a game, ranking No. 9 nationally and tops in the BIG EAST.

The big uglies helped WVU score 49 rushing touchdowns and 65 total touchdowns. The O-line did their job in pass protection, too, allowing just 13 sacks, ranking No. 9 nationally.

LINEBACKERS

The linebacker position is one of strength for the 2008 Mountaineer defense.

Reed Williams, a two-year starter at the middle linebacker position and the defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, returns as the leading tackler from last year's team with 107 tackles, including a sack, 5.5 tackles for loss, three forced fumbles, an interception and two pass breakups.

Mortty Ivy, also a returning starter, is being moved from weak-side linebacker to the strong side. He was the team's second-leading tackler from a year ago. He collected 89 tackles, including 48 solo stops, six sacks, 11 tackles for loss, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and an interception. He had four double-figure tackle games and a season-high three tackles for loss against UConn.

J.T. Thomas, a backup last year as a redshirt freshman, is slated to start at the weak-side linebacker position. He finished with 19 tackles, including three tackles for loss. He had a season-high six tackles, including one for loss against Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl.

THE SPECIALIST

Pat McAfee handled the Mountaineer kicking duties last year, serving as the field goal kicker, extra point kicker and punter, as well as kickoff.

During the 2007 season, he connected on 13-of-19 field goal attempts (68.4 percent), hit 11 in a row at one point, hit multiple field goals in three-straight games and hit a long of 49 yards at Syracuse.

McAfee punted for a 42.7-yard average during the 2007 season, placing 17 inside the opponent's 20-yard line, 13 punts of 50 yards or more, including a a 71-yard punt at Cincinnati.

McAfee missed an extra point in the first game of the season against Western Michigan and then hit 56 in a row. He was second on the team in scoring with 103 points (13 field goals and 64 extra points).

In BIG EAST statistics, McAfee was No. 2 in punting, No. 3 in kick scoring, No. 4 in PAT kicking percentage, No. 5 in overall scoring and No. 6 in field goal percentage.

His career point total stands at 297, which includes 41 field goals and 174 extra points, third on the WVU career kick scoring list; Paul Woodside (1981-84) is the WVU career leader with 323. He also is the all-time career extra points made leader with 174.

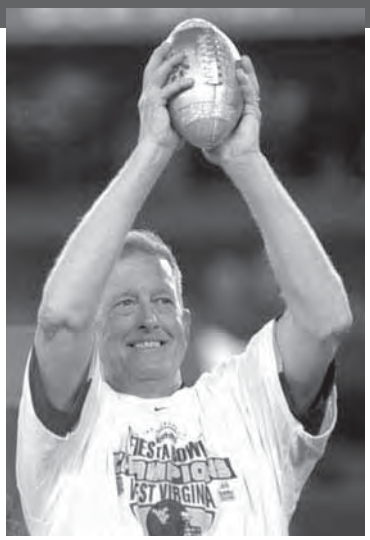
BILL STEWART

Head Football Coach

Never lacking vim, vigor or an outgoing personality, Bill Stewart hit the ground running when he was named interim head coach three weeks prior to the 2008 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, preparing and rallying a team, a coaching staff, a school and a state.

And after guiding the Mountaineers to a remarkable 48-28 victory against Oklahoma, and arguably the most memorable win in the school's history. Stewart was named West Virginia University's 32nd head football coach on January 3, 2008, a day after the impressive victory.

"I'm very honored, very proud and very humbled to be the 32nd head football coach at this great school. I work for the team, the state's flagship University and for the people of the Great State of West Virginia."



A New Martinsville, W.Va., native, Stewart is no stranger to Morgantown, the state of West Virginia or to the college football world as his coaching experiences have been vast and varied.

Prior to being named head coach, he spent eight years on the West Virginia staff under WVU coaches Don Nehlen and Rich Rodriguez, working with the Mountaineer tight ends, and serving as Associate Head Coach in 2007 after spending the prior seven seasons coaching the quarterbacks. He also had the role of special teams coordinator under Rodriguez.

"I don't want people to think I'm something that I'm not," Stewart said. "Just because my title changed from assistant to head, I'm still the same 'ole Bill Stewart. It's just my job. Coach is just a job. I'm still the same old guy and hopefully always will be. I want to be the best I can be to my fellow man and do the very best for this program. It's a great opportunity and something I will cherish forever."

where he served as offensive coordinator of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 1999, tutoring two all-conference receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. As offensive line coach for the CFL's Montreal Allouettes in 1998, Stewart's line blocked for Mike Pringle, the first 2,000-yard rusher in CFL history.

"I was in Canada and was doing well and had several chances to be a head coach. Canada worked out great. Canada was absolutely lights out. I loved it. After I retire here some day, I may go back to Canada and help out. I absolutely loved it. It killed me to leave up there but it

His lengthy coaching resume began at Fairmont State, where he was a student assistant coach for a season before becoming an assistant coach at Sistersville (W.Va.) High School in 1975. In 1977, he moved to Salem College, where he was assistant football and head track coach for two seasons. In 1979, he moved to the University of North Carolina (1980); he was later an assistant at Marshall (1980), William & Mary (1981-83), Navy (1984), North Carolina (1985-87), Arizona State (1988-89) and Air Force (1990-93).

In 1994, Stewart became head football coach at VMI, where he was 8-25 over three seasons. His 1995 team was the highest scoring (24.5 ppg) squad in VMI history, and Keydet running back Thomas Haskins set an NCAA I-AA rushing record with 5,349 yards.

Stewart came to WVU in Jan. 2000, from the Canadian Football League,

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT BILL STEWART

"Bill Stewart is the perfect fit for the head coaching job at West Virginia. He is a West Virginia guy, who is at the right age and is able to live out his dream. He is an extremely gifted football coach and his enthusiasm and love for the game will rub off on the players and staff. The program is in the best shape it has been in many a year, and he is the guy that will lead the program forward. The coaching staff he hired is outstanding and second to none. He is not only a great coach but a better person. He has a super family who loves football, the University and the state of West Virginia."

Don Nehlen
Hall of Fame Football Coach
West Virginia University

"Bill Stewart has certainly proven to be a great football coach and an even better person and a better man. The young men he will coach are very fortunate to be exposed to him as a role model and the way he walks and lives his life. He will be a great example for his players. He has more energy and enthusiasm than anyone that I know. His enthusiasm and excitement and love for football will be contagious for the program and that will gender a lot of success for not only him, but his great staff and program. There are a lot of similarities between him and Coach Don Nehlen, a hall of fame coach who put West Virginia football on the map. They are very fortunate to have him, because it gives them great continuity. The program isn't going to miss a beat. He has surrounded himself with an outstanding coaching staff, with proven winners. He's got wonderful family support that is very passionate about football and the state of West Virginia. The Mountaineers have a native son running the program and fortunately for them, he is passionate not only about football but about the great state of West Virginia as well."

Fisher DeBerry
Hall of Fame Football Coach
Air Force

"I'll tell you, he is a special man in my life for a lot of reasons. He gave me my first job. He showed me how to express the love and enthusiasm I have for this game as a coach. He cares about people. It oozes out of his every day existence. He is an awesome coach. He is an awesome man. I am extremely happy for him. I am happy for West Virginia. They truly picked the right man for the job."

Mike Tomlin
Head Football Coach
Pittsburgh Steelers

"Bill and I have had a personal and professional relationship for over 20 years. He is a dedicated family man, a good friend and a great coach. Bill stresses the details of the game and brings a level of energy to a team that has always made his players better. I would like my kids to play for a coach like Bill."

Lovie Smith
Head Football Coach
Chicago Bears

"Bill Stewart is a heck of a football coach and an even better person. He has a wonderful family and treats his players like they are his own sons. He will recruit players of great character and ability to be Mountaineers. West Virginia hit a home run in hiring Bill Stewart."

Jim Grobe
Head Football Coach
Wake Forest University

"I think it is a great fit. Coach Stewart's love and enthusiasm for West Virginia, coupled with his outstanding knowledge of football, tells me that he is going to enjoy great success at WVU."

Frank Beamer
Head Football Coach
Virginia Tech

"I think West Virginia did the right thing when they hired Bill Stewart as their Head Football Coach. I am proud of him. I remember him in my last years at West Virginia University as a hard worker and a member of the blue collar team. Preparation he had for the Oklahoma game was as good a preparation I have ever seen for a football game. I think with Coach Stewart's enthusiasm, which was very evident on TV, and with the help of an outstanding coaching staff, will keep the Mountaineers on top. I am so proud to see them succeed. Naturally I was hoping Terry Bowden would get the job there when Coach Rodriquez left, but I feel like the job West Virginia did against Oklahoma, that Bill Stewart deserved the job. It reminds me of when I was at West Virginia and Jim Carlin resigned after we won the Peach Bowl in l970. Immediately after the game they named me as the head coach. That was what I was thinking about when they named Bill Stewart as head coach after the Oklahoma game. Good luck and best wishes to the Mountaineers."

Bobby Bowden
Hall of Fame Head Football Coach
Florida State University

"Anyone who watched that Fiesta Bowl knows what kind of a coach Bill Stewart is, and how his players respond to him."

Jim Tressel
Head Football Coach
Ohio State University

"Just a very positive, upbeat person that you really like being around. I think it is obvious to everybody when you're around him just how -- the positive influence he is and he always has a great outlook on everything. There is a long history there. Excellent person, excellent coach with a great background and, again, just very upbeat about everything that he does."

Bob Stoops
Head Football Coach
University of Oklahoma

"At a dark time for West Virginia football, Bill Stewart took over and lit up the program. Mr. Sunshine won over the players and the public with his relentless optimism and joy for the job of leading the Mountaineers, and WVU's upset romp of Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl has to qualify as the best on-the-job interview in recent college football history. If Stewart can maintain the momentum from his work last December and January, West Virginia should maintain its place atop the Big East."

Pat Forde
National College Football Writer
ESPN.com

"Bill Stewart is a breath of fresh air in the coaching profession. Open, honest, straight forward. West Virginia not only has a good coach at the helm, but a person that players, fans, and alumni can be proud of. His leadership and passion for West Virginia football was so clearly shown in this year's Fiesta Bowl win. It is a harbinger of good things to come."

Pat Haden
National Football Analyst
Fox Sports

"In 1979, I had the honor of playing for the University of North Carolina when Coach Stewart was a graduate assistant. Even then, it was obvious to all of us that he was going to be a very successful coach at the collegiate level. First and foremost, I remember him being a good person, who truly cared for all of us as players and young men. He was also intense, hardworking, and a good communicator. He had a very positive coaching style, which definitely earned everyone's respect."

Jon Richardson
President
Panthers Stadium

would have killed me not to come home. Low and behold I got a call from Coach Nehlen asking me to come home and be his quarterbacks coach. I looked at my bride and she said, "Let's go!" Every job I've had has been a promotion, including here.

"So, when mama calls you, you're going. And mama was West Virginia. It was very special for me and a no-brainer to come back and be close to family. I was very honored to be able to come home."

A 1975 education graduate from Fairmont State, where he was a three-year letterman and team captain for the WVIAC champions in 1974, Stewart earned his master's degree in health and physical education from WVU in 1977.

Highly regarded as one of the "good guys" in the profession, Stewart has had several personal and professional life influences starting with his mother, father and older brother.

"I didn't come from much but we had a lot of love," Stewart says of his upbringing. "We had discipline in our home but we had much love. My big brother Ted was a role model for me as well. He's a great man. He was one of my heroes growing up. My coaches and teachers were also my heroes.

"Professionally, I've been so blessed. Don Nehlen, Hall of Fame Coach and the 17th coach to win 200 games. Dick Crum, at UNC, the greatest organizer I've ever been around; Gary Tranquill, at UNC, was probably the best football coach I ever worked with; and Fisher DeBerry at Air Force and his enthusiasm were second to none. They're all great people that I emulated, and I was lucky to work with. I sure hope all of them rubbed off on me."

Stewart got into coaching after realizing that his parents, local sports figures and World War II veterans, were viewed as heroes. And while he's humble in being viewed as one, especially after the Fiesta Bowl magic, he got into coaching for the right reasons.

"I was into heroes as a little boy," he recalls. "My dad and mom were my heroes as were certain neighbors growing up in New Martinsville, W.Va. Most were sports figures or guys I knew that were in World War II. As I got little bit older, in junior high, it was always the coach who I idolized. My principals, they were big in my life and forming my early years. It always seemed like the toughest ones were the ones that I liked. I tried to gain their respect.

"As I got older, I didn't care much for those that wanted to be our buddies. I wanted to be taught. The coach, in my eyes, was my shining star. I fell in love with the game of football and thought, man, I want to do this, as long as I can do it. I knew at an early age I wanted to be a teacher and a coach because they were the people that were most important in my life outside of my family."

His coaching philosophies and goals are simple, yet in-depth.

"It's real simple," Stewart says. "You out-block them, out-tackle them, out-hit them and out-hustle them. If you do that -I'm not into slogans and rah-rah – but if you do that you've got a chance to be real successful.

"I'm into looking right through peoples' eyes and into their hearts. I have limitations. But I've been blessed with a great administration that let me hire people that are experts in their field. That being said, they have to have someone who is a leader. From the time I was a little boy, I've never not stepped to the front. I never stood in the background. I'm going to take that and go. Being a leader and getting things done has always been one of my strong suits.

"Everyone wants to win," he adds. "Life is about winning and that's the American way. The winning comes from hard work. In winning, you have to do things the right way. I will never sacrifice the West Virginia standards to win. I'm never going to cheat, never! We're going to do things the old-fashioned, right way. And that means you out-work them. Just because I don't jump in someone's face or curse them, doesn't mean I'm not intense. Our players and coaches will tell you I get after it when I have to.

"Our goals are to win the BIG EAST championship every year. We want to be the premier team in the league. We want to be a team of national stature but we're going to do it the right way with great student-athletes that buy into the plan. We want great husbands, great dads, great men of society and great men of faith. If all that ties into that winning, that means we've had a great program.

"I'm going to be judged on the wins. I know that. What I do with these young men's lives, I'm being judged by the master coach. And that's where I lay down every night and sleep very well. If that ever changes than I need to get out of it. Winning is very important, it's our life blood. Doing it the right way, all the time, and being an example for other programs is very important for me."

Stewart and his wife Karen, also a native of New Martinsville, have one son, Blaine.

"I was born a West Virginian, I was bred a West Virginian and hopefully when they lay me down I'll be a West Virginian, be it on the banks of the Ohio River or in the hills of Monongalia County."

FOOTBALL STAFF

MIKE KERIN
Assistant Athletic Director/Football Operations

Mike Kerin oversees all of the administrative operations and responsibilities of the football program for West Virginia University. He handles everything from operations, daily schedules, internet contact, travel schedules, professional scouts, coaches clinics, recruiting, scholarship disbursement, ticket allocation, bowl preparations and many of the other areas that keep the Mountaineers functioning smoothly on a day-to-day basis.

Because of his strong work ethic and long-time loyalty to Mountaineer football, Kerin recently was promoted to assistant director of athletics for football operations this past spring. He has been associated with the program since 1980, when he arrived as one of the original members of Don Nehlen's staff. Kerin spent the first eight years as the equipment manager until he became the administrative assistant in 1988 and then the director of football operations in 1998.

Kerin serves as the staff liaison to the BIG EAST office, football alumni, the media and WVU's 16 other varsity sports. He also is instrumental in a number of special projects, such as the turf removal and installation at Mountaineer Field in 1997, 2002 and 2007, the construction of the indoor practice facility in 1998, coordinating the 1998 Pittsburgh Steelers preseason exhibition game, working with the Varsity Club on lettermen's events and the current locker room at the Puskar Center renovation.

Since 2000, he has served on the Football Operations Committee of the American Football Coaches Association, working to develop professional standards and consistency for that position throughout college football.

Kerin came to Morgantown as equipment manager in 1980 after serving two years in the same capacity at Colorado. A past executive board member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association, he has been a valued consultant to several national sporting goods manufacturers, and has hands-on involvement with a number of professional sporting events.

Kerin was a three-year football letterman at Colorado as a tight end and played in the 1975 Bluebonnet Bowl and the 1977 Orange Bowl; he is listed among the Buffaloes' Select Circle for football. A native of Colorado Springs, Colo., Kerin received a bachelor's degree in business administration from Colorado in 1977.

The recipient of the 1997 Curbstone Quarterback Award from the Morgantown Touchdown Club, Kerin and his wife Kathy have three grown children, Melissa, Michael and Jason.

DONNIE YOUNG
Executive Assistant to the Head Coach

The senior member of the West Virginia football staff, Donnie Young is well into his third decade as a member of the Mountaineer coaching family. Prior to the 2001 season, he took on the role of administrative assistant for high school and alumni relations for Mountaineer football after seven seasons on the field as linebacker coach.

Young returned to the field before the 1993 season to coach the Mountaineer rush and weak-side linebackers. Perhaps no season was more rewarding to Young than 1996, when his protege Canute Curtis earned consensus All-America honors as a finalist for the Butkus and Bronko Nagurski Awards. During that same season, Young helped the WVU defense earn NCAA rankings of first in the nation in total defense (217.5 ypg), second in rushing defense (61.5 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (12.4 ppg) and fifth in pass efficiency defense (86.8). The Mountaineers committed the fewest turnovers of any team nationally (10); WVU's +1.27 turnover margin was second in the country.

Hall of Fame coach Don Nehlen named Young recruiting coordinator for Mountaineer football in 1980, after he had served 10 years as an assistant coach at WVU under Bobby Bowden and as assistant head coach under Frank Cignetti. Young was previously head coach at Salem College for three years, leading the Tigers to a 19-6-1 record.

His 1969 team posted an 8-1 record and was ranked in the NAIA's Top 20. He was named West Virginia Conference Coach of the Year that season. He was also an assistant coach at Salem for one season prior to assuming the head coaching chair.

The Clendenin, W.Va., native was a standout defensive guard for the Mountaineers, earning three letters and was an all-conference selection. He received the Ira E. Rodgers Award and the Louis D. Meisel Award in 1964.

Young received his bachelor's degree in physical education and biology from WVU in 1965 and his master's degree in physical education and safety from WVU in 1967.

Young, who earned the 1988 Proficiency Award from the Morgantown Touchdown Club, and his wife, Chyleen, have two children -- Tabitha and Chad -- and four grandchildren, Melody, Timmy, Levi and Dawson.

PAT KIRKLAND
Director of High School Relations

Pat Kirkland is in his first year as the director of high school relations and third year overall on the Mountaineer football staff.

In his new role, Kirkland will oversee the high school coaches clinic and summer camps, while assisting with the development of the Mountaineer football players. He also will assist in coordinating prospect visits on campus and oversee campus and facility tours for unofficial visits. In working with the current team, Kirkland will help oversee many of their off-the-field programs, while assisting in their community service efforts.

Kirkland has coached at the collegiate level for 11 years, including the past two years where he served as the defensive graduate assistant on the WVU football staff. He assisted in the breakdown of film for opponent scouting, game planning, player evaluation and skill development and coaching the linebackers (2006) and the secondary (1997). He also coached the cornerbacks for the 2008 Fiesta Bowl.

During his two years on the WVU staff, the Mountaineers posted a 22-4 record, won the 2007 BIG EAST championship and won the 2007 Gator Bowl and the 2008 Fiesta Bowl.

From 2000 to 2006, he was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Glenville State. His pass defense led the league four of the six years and was among the Top eight nationally each of those years as well.

In 2005, Glenville State finished 9-2, ranked first in the conference and eighth in the nation in total defense, first in the conference and second in the nation in pass defense and held opponents under 15 points per game.

Kirkland also spent two years as the secondary coach at Muskingum College (1998-99). He had four all-conference players in the secondary over the two-year stint.

He received his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Muskingum College. He and his wife, Sarah, live in the Morgantown area.

DAN NEHLEN
Equipment Manager

This will be Dan Nehlen's 20th year as equipment manager for the Mountaineer football program.

The son of Hall of Fame and former Mountaineer coach Don Nehlen, he is responsible for maintaining and procuring all equipment and uniforms for the football program, as well as overseeing the football student managers. Nehlen also coordinates the extensive movement of equipment when West Virginia takes to the road.

Nehlen joined the West Virginia staff in 1981 as a student manager. In 1986, he became assistant equipment manager and held that position for two years before becoming a full-time staff member in 1988.

A native of Canton, Ohio, Nehlen received a bachelor's degree in physical education and safety in 1985 from West Virginia. He and his wife Janie have two children, Ryan and Danielle. Ryan, a freshman receiver, will play for the Mountaineers this year.

BRETT KELLEY
Video Coordinator

Brett Kelley is in his first year as the video coordinator for the West Virginia football program. He came to Morgantown after serving as the video coordinator and account executive for the Nashville Kats Arena football team for the past three years.

Kelley is responsible for coordinating all aspects of the Mountaineer football program's video efforts. With the football program, he handles the day-to-day video operations for practices and games, maintaining the recruiting internet server, film breakdown and exchange, the instant replay system and the production of highlight films.

While in Nashville, he was responsible for setup and filming of home games and practices, handling video breakdown and cuts of game and practice footage, overseen video exchange and filled coach and team requests for specific video cut-ups. He generated season ticket and group ticket sales accounts and took part in grassroots telemarketing campaigns.

Prior to that, Kelley worked for the Tennessee Titans as the video operations assistant from March 2005 until December 2007. He filmed training camp, mini-camps and assisted in total operations of the video department. He operated the still-printers on the field for the coaches and players on the field and recorded and maintained official's copies during the games.

During the 2004 season, he served as a marketing and promotions intern with the Nashville Sounds baseball team

Kelley earned bachelor's degree in general business with concentration in sport management from Fairmont State in 2004. He is married to the former Emily Collins of Nashville, Tenn.

MIKE JOSEPH
Director of Strength and Conditioning

Mike Joseph is in his first year as the director of strength and conditioning at West Virginia University.

Joseph, who came to WVU in January from Notre Dame, will administer, coordinate, develop, implement and teach strength and conditioning programs for all Mountaineer student athletes with a major emphasis on the football program.

He served for five years as the assistant strength coach at Notre Dame (2003-06), working with football and was responsible for the strength and conditioning programs for baseball, volleyball, and softball.

At Notre Dame, he worked with the head strength coach with football, assisted with workouts, testing, conditioning, speed and agility training and in-season and offseason training schedules on a daily basis. He was responsible for developing and training the quarterbacks, tight ends, linebackers, fullbacks and injured players. He also had the same responsibilities with the sports of baseball, volleyball and softball. Also part of his duties included the supervision and maintenance of the facility and equipment and scheduling all student-athletes for the school's 27 sports.

Prior to coming to Notre Dame, he spent two years as an assistant strength coach at Eastern Michigan (2001-03), served as a graduate assistant at WVU for two years (1999-2001), worked at Healthworks Fitness and Rehabilitation in Morgantown during the 2001 summer and was the strength and conditioning coach at Fairmont State (Aug. 1998 – May 1999).

Joseph also was a camp instructor at the Mountain State Speed and Strength Camp hosted by WVU from May 2000 until April 2001. He has served as a guest speaker and instructor at many camps and clinics, has been a classroom instructor and was the state director for the National Association of Speed and Explosion.

He coached 10 Strength & Conditioning All-Americans, 10 football players who earned All-America honors and more than 100 athletes who were either drafted or signed free agent contracts in the NFL.

He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in biology and received his master's degree from West Virginia in physical education with an emphasis in sport movement and development.

While at Fairmont State, Joseph was a four-year letterman and three-year captain on the football team from 1994-97. He was a three-time first-team all-WVIAC selection and was named the WVIAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. He was a 1997 regional All-American, a Burger King Scholar Athlete and a WVIAC Scholar Athlete. He was selected the vice president of the student-athlete advisory committee and to the Fairmont State Student Council.

He is certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA), the National Strength Coaches Association (NSCA) and the National Association of Speed and Explosion (NASE).

He is married to the former Andre Cinalli.

SHAWN GAUNT
Director of Speed/Skill Development

Shawn Gaunt is in his first year on the strength and conditioning staff at West Virginia University, serving as the director of speed/skill development. He came to Morgantown this past spring after a three-year stint as the speed/development coordinator at Notre Dame.

Gaunt designed and implemented a speed development program for football and other varsity teams, as well as assisted with the strength training for football. He was responsible for strength training program for track and field and organized and operated summer speed and agility camp.

Prior to that, he was the head strength and conditioning coach at HS2 Athletic Performance at Mandeville, La., from Jan. 2003 to April 2004. Before attending graduate school at Tennessee, he was the assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at HS2 Athletic Peformance.

Gaunt graduated from Southeastern Louisiana with bachelor's degree in exercise science/health promotion in 1999. He earned master's degree in biomechanics/sports medicine from Tennessee in 2003, and holds certifications as a certified strength & conditioning specialist and strength and conditioning coach certified.

He and his wife, Jill, have a one-year old son, Noah.

PAUL CHANDLER
Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Paul Chandler is in his first year on the athletic staff at WVU as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. He came to Morgantown after a three-year stint at Florida as the strength and conditioning assistant coach for two years and as an intern there the year before.

While at Florida, Chandler assisted in the design, organization and execution of strength and conditioning programs for football, the throwers for the women's track team and men's and women's swimming. He managed and organized student-athletes data, organized and administered weight room scheduling, purchasing and maintenance and assisted in the planning of the strength and conditioning all sports clinics and camps. He also assisted in the mentoring of strength and conditioning interns.

He was a graduate assistant football and strength coach (January 2005 – July 2006). He assisted with defensive line and led strength and conditioning workouts and pool workouts.

Chandler earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Harding University, 2003, and his master's degree in education with emphasis on kinesiology in 2005, also from Harding. He and his wife, Veronica, live in the Morgantown area.

COREY TWINE
Assistant Coordinator for Strength and Conditioning

Corey Twine is in his first year on the strength and conditioning staff at WVU as the assistant coordinator for strength and conditioning. He came to Morgantown this spring after serving as an astronaut strength and conditioning coach at Wyle Laboratories, Inc. (NASA) at Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas since August 2002.

At Wyle Laboratories, Twine scheduled and conducted physical readiness assessments for all active astronauts, formulated and implemented programs and consulted with engineers and biomedical staff on exercise hardware issues.

Prior to that, he served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at Michigan State from September 2000 – August 2002. He assisted in implementing strength and conditioning programs from men's basketball and football and developed individualized weight control programs for at-large athletes. He constructed and implemented programs for women's tennis and was the liaison between the training staff and the strength staff for purpose of rehabilitating athletes.

From March 2000 to Sept. 2000, he was the head strength and conditioning coach for Tampa Bay Devil Rays minor league organization in Charleston, S.C. He designed and scheduled strength and conditioning program for entire team and monitored rehab programs that were constructed by training staff. He also located facilities and coordinated road program.

Twine was a strength and conditioning intern at Penn State from Sept. 1999 – Dec. 1999 and worked camps with the Philadelphia Eagles, the Washington Redskins and Notre Dame.

He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science at Norfolk State in Norfolk, Va., in 2000, and a master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan State in 2002.

SANDY COLE-DEMENT

Educational Academic Counselor

Sandy Cole-DeMent has served as an educational academic counselor for the WVU student-athletes, with major emphasis on football since 1990.

As the director of the Reynolds Family Academic Performance Center, Cole-DeMent is the stabilizing academic force at the Puskar Center for the football program. She compiles background information on each student-athlete before they begin their career, develops individualized academic programs for each athlete, stays in touch with professors on a daily basis, tracks the progress of the students and keeps them on course toward graduation.

She graduated Phi Kappa Phi in health and physical education from WVU in 1989, and received a master's in education administration in 1990. She is working toward a doctorate in counseling and sport behavior. While a graduate assistant, she worked with the university academic services department.

Cole-DeMent is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics, and received the 2000 Curbstone Quarterback Award from the Morgantown Touchdown Club. A native of Morgantown and an avid Mountaineer fan, the St. Francis High graduate and her husband, Rex, live in Star City.

DONNIE TUCKER

Educational Academic Counselor

Donnie Tucker is in his fifth year as an educational academic counselor for the WVU student-athletes, with major emphasis on football.

Tucker plays an integral part of the Mountaineer academic program, helping to gather information on each student-athlete before they enroll and then counsel the student-athletes during their career to keep them on track toward graduation.

He also oversees the life skills program for the Mountaineer football team. He handles hundreds of speaking requests from churches, schools and civic organizations and also sends player memorabilia to charitable organizations to raise money for their groups.

Tucker joined the Mountaineer staff in May 2004, as an academic counselor. He has an extensive background as a high school teacher and coach. From 1995-99, he served as a assistant coach at Morgantown High and 2000-02 in the same role at University High, both in Morgantown.

In 2003, he was head coach at Jefferson (W.Va.) High. He also served on the college coaching staffs of Fairmont State, West Virginia Wesleyan, Salem and Potomac State.

A native of Grant Town, W.Va., and a 1983 graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan with a degree in physical education and psychology, Tucker has a daughter, Kayla.

JOHN SPIKER

Coordinator of Athletic Medical Services

John Spiker serves as coordinator of athletic medical services for the Mountaineer athletic program, overseeing the athletic training services for all sports.

Spiker has been with WVU since 1975 and served as coordinator of the athletic training curriculum until 1984. He assumed his current duties in 1991 and is serving in his 34th season with the WVU football program.

Nationally recognized in sports medicine, the National Athletic Trainers Association has named Spiker the 1980 Collegiate Athletic Trainer of the Year and a Distinguished Athletic Trainer in 1994. He was also named to the WVU School of Physical Education Hall of Fame in 1993. In 2007, Spiker was named the WVU School of Physical Education's outstanding almnus.

A licensed physical therapist, Spiker is president of HealthWorks Rehab and Fitness, a clinic which specializes in orthopedic rehabilitation. He also spent two years as assistant athletic trainer at North Carolina and three years as an assistant trainer at Pitt.

Spiker received his bachelor's degree in physical education from WVU in 1969 and his master's degree in education from Pitt in 1972. He earned his physical therapy certificate from Penn in 1973.

A native of Bruceton Mills, W.Va., Spiker and his wife, Sabra, have three children - Heather Throckmorton, Tim and Zachary.

DAVE KERNS

Head Football Athletic Trainer

Dave Kerns joined the WVU staff in 1994 as head football athletic trainer, overseeing the day-to-day care of the Mountaineer football team. His responsibilities include keeping the WVU football players ready to practice and play in games, as well as working within the acclaimed athletic training curriculum in the WVU School of Physical Education.

Prior to coming to WVU, Kerns spent seven years at Ohio U., working with the football team and teaching in the athletic training curriculum. Before that, he worked as a graduate assistant with the Bobcat men's basketball team.

During his 20-year career as a certified trainer, Kerns has had presentations at the state and district levels and participated in numerous NATABOC certification exams. He serves on two NATA committees.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., Kerns earned his bachelor's degree from Penn State in 1983 and his master's degree from Ohio U. in 1987.

He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Morgantown.

TONY CORLEY

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Tony Corley is in his seventh year as an assistant athletic trainer at West Virginia, working primarily with the Mountaineer football program.

Corley assists with the day-to-day care, rehabilitation and prevention of athletic injuries for the football program. He also has duties as an instructor in the WVU athletic training education program.

He was previously the lead athletic trainer at Charleston Area Medical Center's Sports Medicine and Rehab Center in Charleston, W.Va. As part of his duties at CAMC, he supervised athletic training for Riverside and Dupont High Schools and managed graduate assistant athletic trainers working at other Kanawha County schools.

A 1997 WVU graduate with a bachelor's degree in athletic training, Corley earned his master's degree in kinesiology from Indiana in 1998; he worked with the Hoosiers' football, wrestling and basketball programs. He is a certified member of NATA, the Mid-Atlantic Athletic Trainers Association and the West Virginia Athletic Trainers Association and has given a number of professional presentations for those organizations.

A native of Grant Town, W.Va., Corley is married to the former Devanna Lambert of Monongah. They have two children, Brandon and Kayla.

DR. MATHEW LIVELY
Medical Director

Dr. Matt Lively oversees all aspects of medical care for Mountaineer athletes and serves as a team physician in the area of general medicine. He is responsible for the day-to-day medical needs of WVU's athletes.

The Oak Hill native, currently serves as an assistant professor in the internal medicine and pediatric departments of West Virginia University Hospitals. He graduated from WVU in 1988 with a degree in athletic training and went on to earn his master's degree at Eastern Illinois in 1989 and a doctorate of osteopathic medicine from the West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine in 1993.

Prior to osteopathic school, Lively served stints as an athletic trainer for the Pittsburgh Steelers, Eastern Illinois and Greenbrier East High. He and his wife, Lisa, reside in Morgantown.

GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

Sept. 1, 2007 - Morgantown, W.Va.

West Virginia	62
Western Michigan	24

West Virginia opened the 2007 season with a convincing 62-24 victory over Western Michigan.

Behind 289 yards of total offense from quarterback Patrick White and 170 yards of total offense from tailback Steve Slaton as the two combined for eight touchdowns. The Mountaineers scored their most points in a season opener since 1988.

West Virginia started the scoring at the 9:35 mark of the first quarter when White connected with receiver Dorrell Jalloh for a 19-yard touchdown. The Broncos got on the board later in the quarter on a 14-yard touchdown pass but still trailed 7-6 when the conversion failed.

The Mountaineers extended their lead to 14-6 on the next possession when White hooked up with Slaton on a 50-yard scoring toss to end the first quarter scoring.

White's 38-yard touchdown run followed by a one-yard plunge from Slaton extended WVU"s advantage to 28-6, before the Broncos closed the gap to 28-14 at intermission after quarterback Tim Hiller's two-yard score and a successful two-point conversion.

Slaton broke loose in the third quarter for a 58-yard scoring run at the 9:54 mark, before linebacker Reed Williams intercepted a Hiller pass deep in Bronco territory to set up White's 22-yard scamper on the next play, giving WVU a commanding 42-14 advantage.

The Broncos put together an 11-play, 65-yard drive capped off by a six-yard TD pass to Jamarko Simmons to pull within 42-21, but Slaton closed out third-quarter scoring with a one-yard plunge, giving West Virginia a 49-21 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

Backup quarterback Jarrett Brown conducted a 12-play, 66-yard drive in the fourth quarter and finished it with a 20-yard scoring run for a 56-21 Mountaineer lead. After a 34-yard WMU field goal at the 4:26 mark, West Virginia closed out the scoring when true freshman Noel Devine scored his first collegiate touchdown on an eight-yard run.

STEVE SLATON

White completed 10-of-18 passes for 192 yards and two TDs, while rushing for 97 yards and two more scores. Slaton totaled 109 yards rushing and three scores to lead the ground attack, while also hauling in one TD reception. Receiver Darius Reynaud caught five passes for 92 yards, while linebackers Mortty Ivy and Marc Magro paced the defense with 19 combined tackles.

For the Broncos, Hiller passed for 160 yards, while Simmons led all receivers with 14 catches for 144 yards and two scores. Austin Pritchard and Anthony Gebhart led the WMU defense with 21 combined tackles.

Final totals showed West Virginia with 316 yards rushing and 226 yards passing for 542 yards of total offense. The Western Michigan ground game was stuffed all day by the Mountaineer defense and only totaled 32 rushing yards, but the Broncos did manage 245 passing to finish with 277 yards of total offense.

With the win, the Mountaineers improved to 23-3 in their last 26 games, and it marked the sixth time under Rich Rodriguez that WVU has scored 50 or more points in a game.

The victory also gave the Mountaineers an eight-game non-conference winning streak, and a 17-4 non-conference slate in the month of September under Rodriguez. The seventh-year head coach improved his overall non-conference mark to 22-12, and WVU now stands at 2-0 against Western Michigan.

Sept. 8, 2007 - Huntington, W.Va.

West Virginia	48
Marshall	23

No. 3/4 West Virginia scored 42 second-half points to hand Marshall its worst home loss ever at Joan C. Edwards Stadium by a 48-23 count in the second "Friends of Coal Bowl."

It was the first trip to Huntington in 92 years for the Mountaineers, who trailed 13-6 at the half. However, behind 146 yards rushing from tailback Steve Slaton, 134 yards receiving from Darius Reynaud and 274 yards of total offense from quarterback Patrick White, the Mountaineers never panicked and powered their way to victory number two of the 2007 season.

Marshall returned the opening kickoff 77 yards to set up the game's first score. After the WVU defense held, Herd kicker Anthony Binswanger connected on a 32-yard field goal, giving Marshall a 3-0 early lead.

West Virginia responded with 9:23 left in the opening quarter, when White hit Reynaud down the middle for a 46-yard touchdown pass, giving the Mountaineers a 6-3 lead after the conversion failed.

Marshall hit for two second quarter scores to finish out the first half scoring. Quarterback Bernard Morris hit Darius Passmore for a 38-yard touchdown strike, and Binswanger added a 26-yard field goal as time expired for the 13-6 Herd lead at the half.

In the second half, the Mountaineers took the opening possession of the second half and marched 66 yards in seven plays to tie the game when White hit Reynaud from 23 yards out.

Marshall answered with a Binswanger 34-yard field goal for a 16-13 lead, but the Mountaineers scored on two-straight possessions for a 27-16 edge.

DARIUSREYNAUD

White scored on a 20-yard touchdown run to finish off an eight-play drive, and Slaton ended a six-play, 50-yard drive with a two-yard score. The Herd struck again with 3:14 left in the third quarter when Morris found Cody Slate down the sideline for a 42-yard touchdown pass to pull Marshall within four at 27-23.

However, the West Virginia offense continued to take control in the fourth quarter, while the Mountaineer defense blanked the Herd the rest of the way.

Three West Virginia scores in the fourth quarter broke the game open. The first was a Noel Devine 12-yard scamper up the middle, followed by an 18-yard Slaton touchdown run to cap off WVU's longest scoring drive of the game (nine plays, 80 yards). Devine closed out the scoring with 1:40 left in the game as his second score came on a 10-yard run to the right corner of the end zone.

Reynaud had a career day, leading all receivers with nine catches for 134 yards and two scores. Slaton became just the third back in WVU history to surpass 3,000 career rushing yards. White rushed for 125 yards and one score, along with 149 yards passing and two touchdowns. Linebacker Reed Williams led the defense with 15 tackles and two TFL.

For Marshall, Morris passed for 256 yards and two scores, Darius Marshall finished with 80 yards rushing and receivers Cody Slate and Passmore combined for 158 yards receiving. Maurice Kitchens led the Herd defense with 14 tackles.

West Virginia finished with 362 yards rushing and 149 yards passing to total 511 yards of offense, while the Herd ran for 121 yards and passed for 266 to total 387 yards of offense.

With the win, West Virginia leads the all-time series against Marshall by a 7-0 count, and the Mountaineers are 2-0 all-time against the Herd in Huntington. WVU has outscored the Herd, 342-87, in the series for an average score of 48.9- 12.4.

West Virginia	31
Maryland	14

No. 4/4 West Virginia recorded its fourth-straight victory in the Maryland series with a decisive 31-14 victory over the Terrapins at Byrd Stadium.

The Mountaineers unleashed a strong running game on the Terps that saw junior standout Steve Slaton rushed for 137 yards and three touchdowns, followed by true freshman Noel Devine with 136 yards. The Terps' defense entered the game top-ranked in the ACC against the run, but the unit was no match for West Virginia's spread attack.

West Virginia scored the game's first points when Maryland fumbled the snap on its opening play of the game, and the ball was recovered by defensive lineman Johnny Dingle. Two plays later, quarterback Patrick White rushed in from 22 yards away for an early 7-0 WVU lead.

Maryland answered quickly though and tied the game at 7-7 with 9:53 left in the first quarter, when the Terps put together an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a Keon Lattimore four-yard scoring run.

West Virginia's defense stood tall after the Maryland scoring drive and kept the Terps at bay until the final minutes of the game. The Terps went scoreless on their next eight possessions, while the WVU offense slowly took control of the game.

MORTTYIVY

WVU took a 14-7 lead with 5:02 left in the first half, when Slaton rushed in from 22 yards away. The drive covered 78 yards and was highlighted by a 35-yard completion from White to receiver Darius Reynaud.

The opening possession of the third quarter was a big one, as West Virginia marched 63 yards to take a 21-7 lead behind Slaton's one-yard rush. Big plays in the drive were a 21-yard completion to receiver Dorrell Jalloh and a 31-yard rush by Devine.

Later in the third quarter, West Virginia extended its lead to 28-7 when Devine blitzed through the Terp defense for a 76-yard run to set up a Slaton one-yard scoring play. With the rushing touchdowns, Slaton became just the fourth back in WVU history to amass 40 or more career rushing touchdowns, while Devine's run tied a school record for longest non-scoring run.

While the WVU defense continued to pressure the Terp offensive attack, the Mountaineer offense added a 32-yard Pat McAfee field goal with 10:39 left in the contest to essentially ice the game.

The Terps scored again with 5:50 left in the contest when quarterback Jordan Steffy hit Danny Oquendo for a pretty 22-yard scoring strike. After the Terps recovered the on-sides kick, the Mountaineer defense once again stiffened to secure the win by holding the Terps on four downs.

Aside from the impressive numbers from Slaton and Devine, Owen Schmitt had a big 44-yard rush, and Reynaud finished with four catches for 55 yards. Linebacker Reed Williams led the defensive effort with nine tackles followed by Mortty Ivy with eight stops.

For Maryland, Steffy finished with 180 yards passing, while Lattimore had 80 yards rushing on 21 carries. Erin Henderson led all tacklers with 11 stops.

West Virginia rushed for 353 yards and passed for 95 yards to total 448 yards of total offense. Maryland rushed for 89 yards and passed for 180 to total 269 yards of offense.

With the win, West Virginia has won four straight in the series for the first time ever and leads the tight series against Maryland 23-21-2. The victory also evened West Virginia's all-time record at College Park at 11-11-1. The victory gave Rich Rodriguez a 4-4 mark against Maryland's Ralph Friedgen after the Terp coach won the first four meetings.

West Virginia	48
East Carolina	7

No. 5/5 West Virginia roared out of the gates early and fast on its way to a 48-7 victory over East Carolina.

The Mountaineers built a 27-0 halftime lead behind the strong performance of quarterback Patrick White, who completed 11-of-13 passing in the first two quarters en route to a 181-yard passing day and two touchdowns. White was a perfect 7-of-7 in the second half to finish the game with 18 completions on 20 attempts.

West Virginia took a 3-0 lead on its first possession, when Pat McAfee connected on a 31-yard field goal. After linebacker Mortty Ivy recorded his first career interception on ECU's second possession, the Mountaineer offense marched 69 yards to score the game's first touchdown on Steve Slaton's one-yard run. The score gave Slaton 42 career rushing touchdowns, tying the school record.

WVU scored 17 more points to build upon its 10-0 lead in the second quarter. White upped the advantage with a 13-yard scamper, before hitting receiver Darius Reynaud for a 12-yard touchdown strike to give the Mountaineers a 24-0 lead. McAfee closed out the second quarter, with a 34-yard field goal, as the half expired.

West Virginia was far from done though, and took advantage of the second half open possession by driving 75 yards in seven plays for a 34-0 lead, when White connected with Reynaud again, this time from 14-yards away.

PATWHITE

With 3:21 left in the third quarter, White collected his second touchdown rushing, to go with his two passing, as he motored in from four-yards away for a 41-0 WVU lead.

Tailback Ed Collington closed out the scoring for West Virginia with 5:51 left in the game, when he rushed in from four-yards out. The score was the first of Collington's career.

East Carolina avoided the shutout in the game's final minute when running back Chris Johnson rushed in from three yards away.

Aside from White's totals, Slaton finished with 110 yards rushing and one score, while backup quarterback Jarrett Brown added 82 yards to the WVU rushing totals. True freshman Brandon Hogan caught six passes for 44 yards, while Reynaud hauled in five receptions for 54 yards and scored two touchdowns. His 64-yard run in the game was a career-long.

Eric Wicks and Ivy led the Mountaineer defense with six tackles. The defense recorded four sacks against the Pirates and kept them out of the end zone on nine-straight possessions, before East Carolina finally scored in the game's final minute.

The West Virginia defense held East Carolina quarterback Patrick Pinkney to only 43 yards passing, and Johnson led the Pirate rushing attack with 76 yards. ECU defensive back Van Eskridge contributed 13 tackles in the effort to lead the Pirate defense.

Final totals showed how dominating a performance West Virginia turned in. The Mountaineers rushed for 397 yards and passed for 202 to total 599 yards of total offense. The game marked the 17th time under Coach Rich Rodriguez that the Mountaineers totaled 500 yards or more of total offense The Pirates finished with 106 yards rushing and 54 passing for 160 yards of total offense.

With the win, West Virginia improved to 17-2 all-time against East Carolina. The Mountaineers have won seven-straight games in the series and are 12-0 against the Pirates all-time in Morgantown. Under Rodriguez, the Mountaineers improved to 25-12 in non-conference play, and have won 11-straight non-conference games.

USF	21
West Virginia	13

Despite totaling 437 yards of total offense, No. 5/5 West Virginia could not overcome six turnovers, dropping a 21-13 decision to 18th-ranked USF at Raymond James Stadium.

It was billed as the biggest game in the history of the USF football program, and the largest crowd ever to see a USF home game, 67,012, saw both teams bitten by the turnover bug.

USF turned the ball over four times itself to put the game's total turnovers at 10, but the Bulls capitalized more to gain the victory.

After a missed field goal by USF, it was West Virginia that came up with the game's first turnover when linebacker Mortty Ivy recovered a USF fumble. WVU could not capitalize, but the Bulls turned the ball over on their next two possessions, when Eric Wicks recovered another USF fumble and Ellis Lankster intercepted a Matt Grothe pass. The Mountaineer defense forced three straight USF turnovers, but none resulted in points for WVU.

USF did take advantage of a turnover to score the game's first points as Ben Moffitt intercepted Pat White and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown, giving the Bulls a 7-0 lead.

JARRETTBROWN

USF took a 14-0 lead with 9:43 left in the second quarter, when Grothe escaped a sack and scrambled to find receiver Carlton Mitchell for a 55-yard touchdown pass.

The Bulls came up with another West Virginia fumble on the Mountaineers' next possession, but Ryan Mundy returned the favor by intercepting Grothe to give the Mountaineers one last drive before the half.

On fourth down and five, White scrambled 18 yards to the USF 17-yard line, but was injured on the play when a helmet hit to his thigh caused a deep bruise. Backup quarterback Jarrett Brown finished the drive, which resulted in a 36-yard Pat McAfee field goal, cutting the USF lead to 14-3 at the half.

USF grabbed a 21-3 lead when it took the opening possession 74 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown. With White unable to return in the second half, Brown and the Mountaineer offense answered with a 10-play, 62-yard drive that ended with a McAfee 35-yard field goal to put the score at 21-6.

West Virginia moved closer at 21-13 with 5:45 left in the game on Brown's nine-yard toss to Darius Reynaud. The drive covered 85 yards in 12 plays.

West Virginia's defense came up big once again on USF's next possession. Needing a stop, the Mountaineers held the Bulls on six plays to give the offense a chance to force overtime with 3:04 left in the game.

Starting at the WVU 30, the offense marched to the USF 40, but Brown's fourth-down pass fell incompete, giving the Bulls the upset win.

Brown finished with 61 rushing yards and 149 passing, but the story for WVU was the fine play of its defense. USF was the recipient of six turnovers, but still only managed 21 points. Quinton Andrews topped the unit with eight stops. The Mountaineer defense held Grothe to just 135 yards passing and 38 rushing, keeping him in check for most of the game.

Final totals showed West Virginia with 188 yards rushing and 249 passing for 437 total yards. USF totaled 139 yards on the ground and 135 through the air for 274 yards of total offense. WVU had 21 first downs to USF's 13, and despite the solid numbers, the Mountaineers could not overcome the turnovers, falling to 4-1 on the season.

West Virginia	55
Syracuse	14

No. 12/13 West Virginia used a balanced rushing and passing attack to score the most points ever on Syracuse at the Carrier Dome in a 55-14 victory.

Six different Mountaineers scored touchdowns in West Virginia's first BIG EAST win of 2007. Sparked by key interceptions from the defense, the Mountaineer offense totaled 486 yards to give WVU Coach Rich Rodriguez his 100th career victory.

On the Orange's first possession, safety Ryan Mundy turned in the game's first big play by intercepting quarterback Andrew Robinson. Mundy's 26-yard return gave the offense the ball at the SU 37, and it took only five plays for Owen Schmitt to score on a seven-yard option play.

Robinson brought the Orange back to tie the game when he engineered a 45-yard drive that ended with Curtis Brinkley's one-yard run. However, from there it was all West Virginia.

The Mountaineers took a 14-7 lead at the 2:13 mark of the first quarter on Patrick White's one-yard run that ended a 13-play, 77-yard drive.

With 13:25 left in the half, WVU defensive lineman Keilen Dykes intercepted a tipped Robinson pass and rumbled 19 yards, giving WVU a 21-7 lead.

Two possessions later, Schmitt scored his second touchdown of the game when he powered in from one-yard away, as the Mountaineers moved 51 yards in just five plays. Just before the half, West Virginia turned a late possession into points as Pat McAfee connected on a 49-yard field goal as the half expired, sending the Mountaineers to the locker room leading 31-7.

The Mountaineers didn't let up in the second half, scoring on the opening possession of the third quarter when White connected with receiver Darius Reynaud for a 20-yard touchdown pass.

With West Virginia leading 38-7 in the third, White strained a muscle in his chest and backup Jarrett Brown took over the potent Mountaineer offense midway through the third quarter. McAfee added a 23-yard field goal at the 3:00 mark of the third for a 41-7 advantage before Syracuse struck for a 61-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 41-14.

Brown got in on the scoring action with 13:34 left in the game when he rushed in from the four-yard line to end an impressive nine-play, 84-yard drive,

The Mountaineers tacked on a late score with 8:42 left when tailback Jock Sanders rushed in from 11 yards for his first career rushing touchdown. The score was set up when defensive lineman Johnny Dingle forced a Syracuse fumble that was recovered by Dykes deep in Orange territory. With Sanders' touchdown late in the fourth, West Virginia finished the game, scoring on nine of its 12 possessions.

White was strong in his two and a half quarter of action by rushing for 89 yards and completing 12-of-15 passes for 148 yards. Schmitt's two touchdowns were his first scores of the season, and Marc Magro led another strong defensive effort with seven tackles.

For Syracuse, Robinson finished with 100 yards passing, and Brinkley totaled 50 yards rushing. Mike Williams finished with two catches for 72 yards. The Orange defensive effort was led by Mike Holmes with 13 stops.

West Virginia rushed for 251 yards and passed for 235. The Orange stood at 94 yards rushing and 108 passing for 202 total offensive yards.

The win gave West Virginia six-straight victories over the Orange and three in a row at the Carrier Dome.

West Virginia	38
Mississippi State	13

West Virginia jumped out to a 28-0 first-quarter lead and never looked back in defeating Mississippi State 38-13 on Homecoming at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The game turned on the opening kickoff when West Virginia fumbled the kick, and MSU recovered deep in Mountaineer territory. However, Mississippi State was offsides on the play, forcing another kickoff. From there, West Virginia quarterback Patrick White took care of the rest as he rushed 64 yards on WVU's first play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead just 21 seconds into the game.

After holding the Bulldogs on three plays, the Mountaineers struck again on their second offensive possession when White hit fullback Owen Schmitt for a 12-yard scoring pass, giving WVU a 14-0 lead with 7:46 left in the quarter.

On Mississippi State's next play from scrimmage, linebacker Reed Williams forced a fumble that was recovered by linebacker Marc Magro and returned 39 yards to the MSU 16-yard line. Three plays later, White found receiver Darius Reynaud for a 10-yard touchdown reception, and a 21-0 West Virginia advantage.

The Mountaineer defense again held MSU on downs, giving the offense the ball once again with 3:57 left in the quarter. Five plays later, tailback Steve Slaton rushed 26 yards for a score, giving the Mountaineers the commanding 28-0 lead at the 2:20 mark. Slaton's touchdown run was the 43rd of his career, making him WVU's all-time leader in career rushing touchdowns, passing Ira Errett Rodgers.

STEVESLATON

West Virginia's defense was relentless and again forced a costly Bulldog turnover before the end of the quarter. Linebacker Mortty Ivy recovered the Bulldog fumble, and returned it 25 yards to set up a 42-yard field goal by Pat McAfee at the start of the second quarter for a 31-0 West Virginia advantage.

Mississippi State scored its first points at the 3:51 mark of the second quarter when running back Anthony Dixon reached the end zone from one-yard away, cutting the Bulldog deficit to 31-7 at the half.

MSU took the opening possession of the second half and put together its best drive of the game. Christian Ducre scored from three-yards away to end a 13-play drive that took 5:10. MSU's two-point conversion failed, giving West Virginia a 31-13 advantage.

With the big lead and White still nursing a sore shoulder, backup quarterback Jarrett Brown took control of the Mountaineer offense in the second half and closed out the scoring early in the fourth quarter when he hit Reynaud for a 13-yard scoring toss. It was Reynaud's second TD reception of the game, and provided the final outcome in favor of the Mountaineers.

While only playing one half, White finished with 89 yards rushing and one score to go along with two touchdowns passing. Slaton finished with 127 yards rushing and one score. A solid WVU defensive effort was led by Reed Williams, Eric Wicks, John Holmes and Ridwan Malik with seven tackles each.

MSU quarterback Wesley Carroll passed for 169 yards, while Dixon led the Bulldog rushing attack with 61 yards. Receiver Tony Burks caught a game-high six passes for 41 yards, and Jamon Hughes paced the defense with 12 stops.

West Virginia finished with 262 yards rushing and 84 passing to total 346 yards of total offense. Mississippi State's totals stood at 45 yards rushing and 169 passing for 214 yards of offense.

The win gave West Virginia a 5-0 mark in non-conference play for the season. The victory also gave the Mountaineers a 12-game non-conference winning streak, including six straight non-conference wins at home.

West Virginia	31
Rutgers	3

Behind 300 yards of total offense from quarterback Patrick White, No. 6 West Virginia defeated No. 25 Rutgers for the 13th-straight time with a 31-3 victory at Rutgers Stadium.

West Virginia's defense came up big as the unit kept the Rutgers offense in check for most of the game.

Steve Slaton again proved that he can be a valuable asset running or catching the ball as he rushed for three touchdowns and caught one pass for 51 yards to serve as the perfect complement to White.

The game was played in a driving rainstorm in the first half. The Mountaineer offense got the scoring started at the 4:33 mark of the first quarter when Slaton reversed field and went 38 yards for a score.

Special teams set up the next score when a Pat McAfee punt hit Rutgers' Ramy Nubani, and was recovered by WVU's Mortty Ivy, setting up the Mountaineers' next score. White rushed for 19 and seven yards in the drive, before going in from the one-yard line to up West Virginia's advantage to 14-0 at the 9:00 mark of the second quarter.

LARRYWILLIAMS

Rutgers got its only points of the game on its next possession, driving 45 yards in 11 plays, only to settle for a 39-yard Jeremy Ito field goal to cut the deficit to 14-3.

The Mountaineers used up the remaining 4:32 in the first half with an 11-play, 60-yard drive that featured runs of 22 and 13 yards from White. The drive ended with a 42-yard field goal from McAfee in a harsh wind to put WVU up 17-3 at halftime.

On Rutgers' first possession of the second half, the Scarlet Knights controlled the ball for more than 4:00, but the bend-but-don't break West Virginia defense came up with a stop deep in its territory to force a 41-yard field goal attempt that Ito left short.

From there, West Virginia's offense put the game away. White hit Slaton on a screen for a 51-yard gain on third and 13 to quiet the Rutgers fans, and White turned in another run of 15 yards on third and three to set up Slaton's one-yard run to put West Virginia up 24-3 with 3:47 left in the third.

Fourth quarter action saw the Mountaineer defense intercept Rutgers' quarterback Mike Teel twice. Boogie Allen's interception with 11:16 left in the game set up the next scoring drive in which White accounted for a 50-yard run on third and 16 to set up Slaton's six-yard dash to the corner of the end zone for a 31-3 WVU lead.

Safety Ryan Mundy turned in WVU's second interception on Rutgers' next drive when he picked off Teel and returned it 32 yards to thwart another Scarlet Knight scoring threat late in the game.

White rushed for 156 yards and passed for 144, while Slaton's day ended with three touchdowns and 73 yards rushing. Linebackers Reed Williams, Mortty Ivy and Marc Magro combined for 33 tackles in holding Rutgers to its fewest points scored since 2002.

For RU, Ray Rice finished with 142 yards rushing, while Devin McCorty led the defensive effort with 12 tackles.

West Virginia rushed for 254 yards and passed for 144 to total 398 yards of offense. Rutgers finished with 183 yards rushing and 131 yards passing for 314 yards of total offense.

The win gave West Virginia a 29-4 record over its last 33 games, and a 14-3 mark in BIG EAST play during the span. The Mountaineers improved to 29-4-2 all-time versus Rutgers and 14-4-2 against the Knights in New Jersey. The win also gave WVU a 15-2 mark against Rutgers in BIG EAST play.

West Virginia	38
Louisville	31

Behind 328 yards of total offense from Patrick White, No. 7 West Virginia defeated Louisville, 38-31, at Milan Puskar Stadium.

White passed for 181 yards and two scores, while rushing for 147 and one touchdown in making big play after big play with his arms and his feet.

The Mountaineers jumped out early behind the throwing of White when he hit receiver Darius Reynaud for a seven-yard touchdown with 3:18 left in the first quarter.

After recovering a Louisville fumble, West Virginia struck again with 1:22 left in the quarter when White went to the air and found Reynaud for a nine-yard strike, and a 14-0 WVU advantage.

Louisville answered with its first points at the 12:52 mark of the second quarter when Brian Brohm hit tight end Gary Barnidge for a 16-yard touchdown.

The Mountaineers responded with a 12-play, 69-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown run from Steve Slaton. Up 21-7, the Mountaineers appeared to be sailing, but Brohm continued to bring the Cardinals back.

With just :28 left before halftime, the Cardinals closed the deficit to 21-14 when Brohm dove in from the one-yard line.

Second half action saw the turnover bug hit both teams. After West Virginia added a 28-yard Pat McAfee field goal on its first possession of the second half, the Mountaineers took a 31-14 lead midway through the third quarter when Johnny Holmes sacked Brohm, forcing a fumble that Eric Wicks picked up and returned it 44 yards for a score.

ERICWICKS

Louisville then took advantage of a WVU fumble and closed the gap to 31-21 on a two-yard rush from Brock Bolen with just 56 ticks left in the third.

The Cardinals closed to 31-28 with 10:32 left in the game when Brohm hit Mario Urrutia from 12 yards away.

A Wicks interception of Brohm with just 6:04 left seemed to give the Mountaineers some momentum. However, the offense gave the ball right back with a costly fumble, and Louisville capitalized.

With 3:05 remaining, Art Carmody tied the game with a 37-yard field goal, forcing West Virginia to make a play in the game's final minutes.

The one who stepped up once again was White. He completed passes of nine and 12 yards, mixed in with a four-yard run to get the Mountaineers to midfield. On 2nd and 8, he turned in the play of the game with a 50-yard touchdown run to send the home fans into a frenzy with just 1:36 left. From there, the West Virginia defense put pressure on Brohm and held the Cardinals at bay for the victory.

Aside from White's strong numbers, Slaton added 60 yards rushing, while Reynaud finished with 79 yards and two scores. The Mountaineer defense was led by Mortty Ivy with eight tackles.

Brohm finished with 345 yards passing, and was responsible for three touchdowns. Tailback George Stripling led all receivers with eight catches for 105 yards. The Cardinal defense was led by Lamar Myles with 13 tackles, and Bobby Buchanan with 11.

West Virginia finished with 216 yards rushing and 181 passing to total 397 yards of total offense. Louisville totaled only 37 yards rushing, but with its 345 yards through the air, the Cardinals finished with 382 yards of total offense.

The win upped West Virginia's record to 8-1 overall and 3-1 in the BIG EAST. Louisville dropped to 5-5 overall and 2-3 in the league. With the victory, the Mountaineers improved to 11-0 in home night games under Rich Rodriguez.

West Virginia	28
Cincinnati	23

No. 5 West Virginia survived the fourth-quarter turnover bug to defeat Cincinnati, 28-23, in front of a Saturday night prime time television audience and a sold out Nippert Stadium.

The Mountaineers built a 28-10 lead largely behind the play of quarterback Patrick White. The junior signal caller rushed for 155 yards and two touchdowns, while passing for another 140 yards in the victory.

White got the Mountaineers on the board in the first quarter on WVU's first possession. He engineered a nine-play, 70-yard drive that ended with an Owen Schmitt four-yard run.

Cincinnati tied the score at 7-7 with 4:41 left in the first quarter, when quarterback Ben Mauk hit receiver Marcus Barnett for a 70-yard touchdown pass.

West Virginia retook the lead at the 6:29 mark of the second quarter, when White completed a 12-play, 80-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run, giving the Mountaineers a 14-7 lead.

The Bearcats closed the deficit to 14-10 with 4:27 left in the half when kicker Jake Rogers connected on a 42-yard field goal. West Virginia was not done, marching 73 yards just before halftime to take a 21-10 lead. On the drive, White passed for 38 yards and rushed for 34.

The Mountaineers could not take advantage of a third-quarter fumble from Mauk and neither team scored in the quarter. However, early in the fourth, West Virginia took what seemed like a commanding 28-10 lead by marching 73 yards for a score. Tailback Steve Slaton was strong on the drive with 23 yards rushing and one reception for 13 yards. It was Slaton's one-yard run that ended the drive, giving WVU an 18-point lead with 11:43 left in the game.

Cincinnati answered with a 12-play, 71-yard drive that ended with a Mauk touchdown pass to Barnett, closing the deficit to 28-17. On WVU's first play from scrimmage in the next drive, the Mountaineers fumbled. However, the defense rose to the occasion and forced a Cincinnati punt with 6:08 left in the game.

West Virginia then started running out the clock and gained a first down, but yet another fumble gave Cincinnati new life, and the Bearcats made things interesting scoring with just 2:26 left on a Bradley Glatthaar one-yard rush. The two-point conversion attempt failed, giving the Mountaineers a 28-23 advantage.

West Virginia's Boogie Allen recovered the ensuing onsides kick, and Slaton did the rest by rushing for 26 yards, gaining two first downs to allow the Mountaineer offense to run out the clock and capture the victory.

Aside from White's strong numbers, Slaton finished with 103 yards rushing, while also pulling in 48 yards receiving. Pat McAfee averaged 49 yards per punt with a long of 71, and the Mountaineer defense was led by linebacker Marc Magro with eight tackles.

Cincinnati was led by Mauk, who passed for 323 yards and two scores, and rushed for a team-high 52 yards. Barnett led all receivers with 210 yards and caught both of Mauk's touchdown passes. The Bearcat defense was led by Haruki Nakamura with 10 tackles, and Terrill Byrd with nine.

The Mountaineers finished with 295 yards rushing and 140 passing for 435 yards of total offense. Cincinnati stood at 84 yards rushing and 323 passing for 407 yards of total offense.

The win gave the Mountaineers a 14-1-1 all-time mark against the Bearcats.

West Virginia	66
Connecticut	21

No. 3/4 West Virginia rolled up 624 yards of total offense, including 517 yards rushing, in routing No.20/21 Connecticut 66-21 at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The win secured West Virginia its fourth BIG EAST championship in the last six years, and guaranteed the Mountaineers a berth in the Bowl Championship Series. The contest also saw Steve Slaton and Patrick White reach the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second-straight year, marking just the third set of teammates in NCAA history to reach 1,000-yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

Connecticut started the scoring in the first quarter when the Huskies moved 92 yards and scored on Tyler Lorenzen's six-yard pass to Brad Kancuh.

It did not take the Mountaineers long to answer as they tied the score just two minutes later when White scored on a three-yard run.

West Virginia's Ryan Mundy then recovered a Husky fumbled punt at the UConn 14-yard line to set up White's 14-yard touchdown pass to Darius Reynaud with 7:01 left in the first quarter.

The Mountaineers upped their advantage to 17-7 in the second quarter when Pat McAfee connected on a 46-yard field goal. WVU's defense set up the game's next score when linebacker Mortty Ivy stripped Lorenzen of the ball and Scooter Berry recovered, setting up the Mountaineers at their 40-yard line. WVU's dynamic duo took care of the rest with a 29-yard rush from White and a 31-yard touchdown scamper from Slaton, giving the Mountaineers a 24-7 advantage.

Connecticut got on the board again just before halftime when the Huskies marched 77 yards in 10 plays, capped by a Donald Brown two-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 24-14.

Third quarter action belonged to West Virginia as the Mountaineers reeled off 21 unanswered points. First, it was White's 24-yard run for a score, followed by Noel Devine's 25-yard touchdown run, and then the Mountaineer defense got in on the action. Linebacker Reed Williams recovered a Lorenzen fumble in the end zone for a commanding 45-14 WVU advantage heading into the final quarter.

The Mountaineers were far from done as the string of unanswered points reached 42, before the Huskies finally scored again in the game's final minute. Slaton added his second touchdown with a three-yard run, before Jock Sanders accounted for all the yardage in the next drive, highlighted by a 58-yard run for a 59-14 lead. Ed Collington finished out the scoring for WVU with a one-yard run, before UConn added a two-yard touchdown pass to put the final score at 66-21.

White was outstanding once again with 186 yards rushing and 107 passing for 293 yards of total offense and three scores. White's performance marked the 31st time in NCAA history that a quarterback has rushed for 1,000 yards, and he became just the fifth player all-time to pass and rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Devine added 118 yards on the ground, and Reynaud caught five passes for 76 yards. Ivy led the defense with 11 tackles and three TFL.

Lorenzen finished with 151 yards passing, and Brown rushed for 129 yards to pace the Husky attack. Kanuch pulled in 63 yards receiving, and Scott Lutrus led the UConn defense with nine tackles.

West Virginia rushed for 517 yards and passed for 107 to total 624 yards of total offense. Connecticut's final totals stood at 203 yards rushing and 189 yards passing for 392 yards of total offense.

The win upped West Virginia's record to 10-1, while UConn finished the regular season at 9-3. The 624 yards of total offense was the third most of the Rich Rodriguez era at West Virginia, while the 524 yards rushing were the second-most under Rodriguez.

Pitt	13
West Virginia	9

Pitt came into the 100th edition of the "Backyard Brawl" and stunned No. 1/2 West Virginia with a 13-9 upset victory at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Panthers were led by tailback LeSean McCoy with 148 yards rushing. West Virginia was led by a solid defensive effort paced by linebackers Marc Magro with 17 tackles, followed by Reed Williams with 11 and Mortty Ivy with 10.

The Mountaineer defense tried to set the table for the game's first score when Antonio Lewis intercepted a Pat Bostick pass and returned it 48 yards to the Pitt 27-yard line. West Virginia's offense moved the ball to the two-yard line, but a missed WVU field goal kept the game scoreless with 11:44 left in the first quarter.

After the Panthers were held on downs in their next two possessions, the Mountaineer offense embarked on a 10-play, 42-yard drive to the Pitt 15-yard line, but another missed WVU field goal kept the game scoreless heading into the second quarter.

West Virginia became the first team to light the scoreboard with just 1:43 left in the half. Backup quarterback Jarrett Brown entered the game for Pat White after White suffered a dislocated right thumb, and rumbled six yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 Mountaineer advantage.

MARCMAGRO

Pitt made the most of the remaining time in the half and moved to the West Virginia 31-yard line, and Conor Lee converted a 48-yard field goal as time expired to put the halftime score at 7-3 in favor of West Virginia.

Vaughn Rivers returned the opening kickoff of the second half 31 yards before a fumble gave the Panthers the ball at the WVU 48-yard line.

Mixing the running of McCoy with timely passing from Bostick, along with a fake punt on fourth and one, the Panthers put together an 11-play drive that ended with Bostick's one-yard plunge for a 10-7 lead.

The key to the third quarter was ball control, and the Mountaineers managed only four offensive plays in the quarter. The Panther offense methodically controlled the ball, and after another long drive of 13 plays used up the quarter, the Panthers came up empty when Lee missed from 35 yards out.

West Virginia's offense continued to struggle early in the fourth, and while another Panther possession did not produce any points, it ate up another 3:38 of the quarter, before giving the ball back to West Virginia.

However, a third Mountaineer fumble was recovered by Pitt at the West Virginia 26-yard line, and the Panthers came away with another Lee field goal, this one from 18 yards away, to up their advantage to 13-7 with 6:17 left in the contest.

Noel Devine returned the ensuing kickoff 48 yards to set up the Mountaineers in Pitt territory. Needing an offensive boast, the injured White re-entered the game with 6:17 left. In two possessions, White marched the Mountaineers as far as the Pitt 21-yard line, but both drives stalled, and Pitt secured the victory by running out the clock and taking a safety in the game's final seconds.

West Virginia came into the contest ranked second in the nation in rushing offense, but finished with only 104 yards to go along with 79 yards passing for 183 yards of total offense.

Pitt finished with 67 yards passing and 158 yards rushing to total 225 yards of total offense. The Panthers also won the time of possession battle 36:19 to 23:41.

The loss dropped West Virginia in the final regular-season polls to No. 9 in the coaches' and No. 11 in the AP. The Mountaineers earned a berth to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl to play No.3 Oklahoma.

West Virginia	48
Oklahoma	28

Under interim head coach Bill Stewart, West Virginia pulled off the biggest upset in school history by defeating No. 3 Oklahoma 48-28 in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Behind 150 yards rushing and 176 passing from quarterback and bowl offensive MVP Patrick White, the Mountaineers stunned the heavily favored Sooners by rushing for 349 yards to key the victory. It marked the sixth time in his career that he has surpassed 300 yards of total offense in a game.

Set up by a Vaughn Rivers 51-yard punt return, West Virginia scored the game's first points, when kicker Pat McAfee connected on a 38-yard field goal with 5:40 left in the opening quarter.

West Virginia then took a 6-0 lead as time in the quarter expired, when McAfee connected on a 42-yard field goal.

Oklahoma's Garret Hartley hit a 37-yard field goal at the 7:46 mark of the second quarter to cut the WVU lead in half.

West Virginia answered just more than a minute later, when Owen Schmitt rumbled for a 57-yard touchdown run, the longest in WVU bowl history, to give the Mountaineers a 13-3 lead with 6:23 remaining in the half.

Oklahoma answered with a 24-yard Hartley field goal to cut the deficit to 13-6. The Mountaineers managed another score to increase their lead to 20-6 at the half.

That drive was sparked by a 34-yard completion to tailback Noel Devine, who entered the game after starting tailback Steve Slaton left with a hamstring injury, In the drive, White marched the Mountaineers 78 yards in seven plays and ended the drive with a pretty 21-yard pass to a wide open Darius Reynaud. In the 78-yard drive, 58 yards came via the Mountaineer passing game.

Oklahoma scored the first nine points of the third quarter. The Sooners got yet another field goal from Hartley at the 9:33 mark and then added a Chris Brown one-yard touchdown run to cap an 80-yard drive. The Sooners went for the two-point conversion, but quarterback Sam Bradford's pass was incomplete, giving WVU a 20-15 lead with 6:22 left in the third.

NOELDEVINE

The momentum was squarely on the Oklahoma side, but it turned quickly, when the Sooners tried an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by WVU's Ridwan Malik. From there, White and the Mountaineer offense regained control.

Taking over at the Oklahoma 39-yard line, it took just six plays to capitalize on the field position as Devine's 17-yard scoring run gave the Mountaineers a 27-15 lead.

After holding the Sooners on their next possession, West Virginia struck again behind a White 42-yard run and a 30-yard Reynaud reverse for a score, giving WVU a 34-15 lead heading into the final quarter.

The scoring was furious in the final stanza, but WVU answered every Oklahoma punch. The Sooners closed the deficit to 34-21, when Bradford hit Quentin Chaney for a 19-yard score, but WVU responded in just one play when White hit receiver Tito Gonzales for a 79-yard scoring strike, raising the Mountaineer lead to 41-21. Bradford then connected with Juaquin Iglesias for a 15-yard touchdown strike to pull the Sooners to 41-28 with 10:14 left, but Devine finished off the game's scoring with a 65-yard scoring run at the 9:14 mark to give the Mountaineers the 48-28 victory.

Devine finished with 108 yards rushing, while linebacker Reed Williams won the defensive MVP honors with nine tackles, two TFL and a forced fumble. For Oklahoma, Bradford passed for 242 yards, Chaney led all receivers with 129 yards, while Curtis Lofton led the defense with 15 tackles.

Final totals showed West Virginia with an impressive 525 yards of total offense, while Oklahoma finished with 419 yards.

The win gave West Virginia its third straight bowl victory and second BCS victory in three years. After the game, Stewart was named West Virginia's 32nd head coach.

BOWL GAMES

EAST-WEST BOWL

West Virginia	21
Gonzaga	13

San Diego, Calif. (December 25) -- West Virginia made its first postseason appearance a successful one as it defeated western-foe Gonzaga on Christmas Day in the 1922 East-West Bowl.

The Mountaineers had to hang on for dear life in the sweltering San Diego, Calif., heat, building up a 210 lead after three quarters. Coach Clarence Spears took only 19 players on the trip.

West Virginia started the scoring in the first period as Nick Nardacci slipped through the Bulldog line for a 12-yard touchdown run. Gonzaga threatened in the second period, but Mountaineer captain Russ Meredith intercepted an errant Bulldog pass and rambled 80 yards down the sideline for West Virginia's second score. The Mountaineers added another touchdown in the third quarter on a 16-yard pass from Nardacci to Jack Simons.

Gonzaga staged a furious comeback in the last period, scoring twice, thanks to two 50-yard runs by Matt Bross, following pass completions, but the Mountaineer defense held strong to seal bowl victory No. 1.

SUN BOWL

West Virginia	7
Texas Tech	6

El Paso, Texas (January 1) -- The country's sports writers heaped praise on Coach Marshall "Little Sleepy" Glenn's Mountaineers following their hardfought victory over slightly favored Texas Tech in the 1938 Sun Bowl.

Taking advantage of a Red Raider fumble, the gallant Mountaineers struck swiftly in the first few minutes of the second period to tally their touchdown.

West Virginia recovered the important miscue deep in Texas Tech territory at the three. Three plays failed to bring the needed yardage as the Red Raider defense stiffened and held beautifully. However, on fourth down, little Davey Isaac playing the final game of his career started to dart around end, fumbled the ball, but scooped it up, eluded three tacklers and raced into the end zone for the touchdown. Quarterback Kelly Moan then booted the ball through the uprights for the point that eventually decided the outcome.

The Red Raiders scored shortly before halftime, but failed to tie the game when the extra point was blocked. West Virginia's Harry "Flash" Clarke dazzled the crowd on the way to 132 yards rushing, as the Mountaineer defense rose to the occasion and prevented a Texas Tech score in the final two stanzas.

SUN BOWL

West Virginia	21
Texas Western	12

El Paso, Texas (January 1) -- West Virginia spotted Texas Western (now UTEP) an early 6-0 lead, but roared back to score once before halftime and twice in the third period to defeat the Miners in the 1949 Sun Bowl.

The victory for Coach Dud DeGroot's scrappy team enabled West Virginia to keep its perfect record for bowl contests intact. Quarterback Jimmy Walthall, always cool and possessing sharp aim, despite the Texas Western pass rush, completed 7-of-16 passes for 122 yards to lead the winning attack.

The Mountaineers' first touchdown came late in the second period when Walthall hit Clarence Cox with a 25-yard scoring strike. The other two West Virginia touchdowns came on third-quarter drives in which Walthall's passes paved the way. Jim Devonshire ran for two touchdowns, one from nine yards and one from one yard. Devonshire and Jack Morton were the running stars, who helped make Walthall's passing effective. The Mountaineers outgained Texas Western, 305-300, in total offense, while notching their third bowl win.

SUGAR BOWL

Georgia Tech	42
West Virginia	19

New Orleans, La. (January 1) -- Two old bugaboos poor pass defense and penalties led to the downfall of West Virginia as alert, speedy Georgia Tech easily handled the mammoth Mountaineers in the 20th annual Sugar Bowl.

Georgia Tech's overall speed and the expert passing of Pepper Rodgers combined to spell defeat for West Virginia. Rodgers completed 16-of-26 passes for 195 yards and three touchdowns for the Yellow Jackets.

Five fumbles and a host of penalties stifled the Mountaineer attack all afternoon. Danny Williams, Joe Marconi and Tommy Allman each tallied a score for West Virginia. Williams ran it in from five-yards out early in the second period; Marconi and Allman each scored from one-yard out in the fourth quarter.

West Virginia coach Art "Pappy" Lewis had tears in his eyes in the Mountaineer dressing room following the setback that marked West Virginia's first bowl defeat.

1964 LIBERTY BOWL

Utah	32
West Virginia	6

Atlantic City, N.J. (December 19) -- Utah combined speed and alertness with fundamental soundness for a one-sided victory over West Virginia in the 1964 Liberty Bowl beneath the bright lights in Atlantic City's Convention Hall.

The Utes showed too much speed, racing to a 25-0 lead before the Mountaineers could manage a touchdown that averted the shutout in the first major bowl game ever played indoors.

The passing of Allen McCune and the receiving of Milt Clegg were the only bright spots for the Mountaineers. They hooked up seven times for 92 yards and West Virginia's lone score. In all, McCune completed 13-of-28 passes, but was intercepted four times.

Coach Gene Corum cited Utah's speed as the game's deciding factor in reference to a staggering 466 yards of total offense by the Utes.

1969 PEACH BOWL

West Virginia	14
South Carolina	3

Atlanta, Ga. (December 30) -- West Virginia installed a new wishbone offense and rode an all-time, single-game rushing performance by Eddie Williams to victory over confused South Carolina in the rain-soaked 1969 Peach Bowl in Atlanta.

Williams scampered for 208 yards on 35 carries, following his surprise start at fullback in place of Jim Braxton. Coach Jim Carlen's Mountaineers responded to the alterations as quarterback Mike Sherwood tried but two passes all night.

Bob Gresham picked up 98 yards to become West Virginia's all-time, single-season rushing leader. The Mountaineers amassed a gaudy 346 yards on the ground as they ran, and ran, and ran. All-America middle guard Carl Crennel led a stalwart Mountaineer defense that prevented the Gamecocks from scoring a touchdown. Crennel had a fumble recovery to go with his teammates' two interceptions as West Virginia equaled its high for victories in one season and ran its bowl record to 4-2.

1972 PEACH BOWL

North Carolina State	49
West Virginia	13

Atlanta, Ga. (December 29) -- Ripping West Virginia's defense to shreds with a five-touchdown second half, North Carolina State routed the Mountaineers in the 1972 Peach Bowl before a record crowd in Atlanta.

The Wolfpack shattered one Peach Bowl record after another as they handed the Mountaineers their worst bowl defeat ever.

West Virginia jumped to an early 6-0 lead on two Frank Nester field goals and led 13-7 after one quarter following a Bernie GaliffatoDanny Buggs touchdown pass. But Coach Bobby Bowden's squad could muster little the rest of the way as the Wolfpack went ahead in the second period, before exploding for 21 points in the third quarter and 14 more in the fourth.

Freshman quarterback Dave Buckey led North Carolina State past the bewildered Mountaineers as the Wolfpack scored the first five times it got its hands on the ball in the second half.

1975 PEACH BOWL

West Virginia	13
North Carolina State	10

Atlanta, Ga. (December 31) -- West Virginia used a Dan Kendra-to-Scott MacDonald fourthquarter touchdown strike to avenge a 1972 defeat to North Carolina State and stage a thrilling victory in the 1975 Peach Bowl.

MacDonald, recruited to play basketball for West Virginia, plucked a Kendra pass out of the air, juggled it, finally gained a grip and galloped 50 yards for the deciding touchdown with seven minutes remaining.

The victory gave Coach Bobby Bowden his first bowl win in two tries and his first nine-victory season in six years at West Virginia.

North Carolina State quarterback Dave Buckey, who riddled West Virginia with his passing in the 1972 Peach Bowl, was rendered ineffective by the Mountaineer defense as West Virginia beat the Wolfpack at its own game on the mud-soaked field of Atlanta Stadium.

Kendra passed for 202 yards and both Mountaineer touchdowns, one to MacDonald and the other a 39-yard, second-quarter toss to Artie Owens.

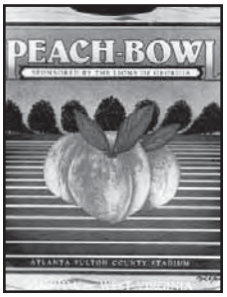
PEACH BOWL

West Virginia	26
Florida	6



Atlanta, Ga. (December 31) -- Underdog West Virginia dominated the scoreboard and rewrote the record book as it crushed an overconfident Florida team in the 1981 Peach Bowl, prompting Gator head coach Charley Pell to burn the game film.

Seven Peach Bowl records fell during the course of the onslaught. Tailback Mickey Walczak tallied a pair of touchdowns and caught a Peach Bowl record eight passes. Kicker Paul Woodside added a record four field goals as West Virginia registered one of the most impressive victories in its long football history.

Coach Don Nehlen called it his team's "finest hour," and who could argue as the Mountaineers thoroughly dominated the statistics on both sides of the ball.

Quarterback Oliver Luck closed out his career by completing 14-of-23 passes for 107 yards and one touchdown, while guiding West Virginia on one long drive after another. Defensive standout Don Stemple was selected as the game's MVP.

Florida averted the shutout by scoring late in the fourth period, but the Gators ended the blowout with an embarrassing minus 30 yards rushing, thanks to the superb Mountaineer defensive effort led by linebackers Dennis Fowlkes and Darryl Talley, and defensive backs Steve Newberry and Tim Agee.

West Virginia	12

Jacksonville, Fla. (December 30) -- Florida State's big-play attack, manned by a fleet of speedy personnel, proved too much this night, as the Seminoles overwhelmed West Virginia in the 1982 Gator Bowl on a cold and rainy evening in Jacksonville.

The Mountaineers made a host of uncharacteristic mistakes as former WVU coach Bobby Bowden's squad dominated the game and spoiled West Virginia's hopes of breaking into the nation's Top 10.

With Florida State leading 17-6 early in the third quarter, West Virginia's Willie Drewrey returned a punt 82 yards to the Seminole seven-yard line. Mountaineer hopes were raised, but three plays netted only one yard, and Paul Woodside's 23yard field goal attempt was wide right. Florida State proceeded to score the next two times it had the ball.

Woodside kicked two first-half field goals, and Kevin White passed to Darrell Miller in the fourth quarter to account for the Mountaineer scoring as Don Nehlen lost his first bowl game as head coach at West Virginia.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia	20
Kentucky	16

Birmingham, Ala. (December 23) -- West Virginia suffered through a dismal first half, but recovered in the second half, thanks to an awakened Jeff Hostetler, and defeated underdog-but-determined Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl on a bitter cold night in Birmingham.

After watching the Wildcats jump to a 10-3 halftime lead while going 0-for-10 passing, Hostetler came back to complete 10 of his final 13 passes for 88 yards and two touchdowns.

The momentum swing began as West Virginia opened the second half by executing an onside kick to perfection, much to the surprise of the Kentucky defense. Paul Woodside recovered his own kick at the Wildcat 48, and eight plays later, Hostetler found Rich Hollins 16 yards away in the corner of the end zone.

The Mountaineers mounted the winning drive late in the third quarter behind Hostetler's running and passing. Rob Bennett hauled in the game winner from two yards out early in the fourth period.

The West Virginia defense got into the act on the next series. A Tim Agee interception led to a Woodside 23-yard three-pointer only two minutes later to complete the Mountaineer scoring. The Wildcats added a late touchdown, but the verdict was already in.

West Virginia survived the first half, thanks to the slashing running of workhorse Tom Gray, who totaled 149 yards for the night on 32 carries. Kentucky aided the cause on its first possession of the game by opting for a fake in lieu of a chipshot field goal and overthrowing an open receiver in the end zone.

BLUEBONNET BOWL

West Virginia	31
TCU	14

Houston, Texas (December 31) -- Un-beeleev-able! It was another supposedly insurmountable obstacle for Coach Don Nehlen's squad. TCU had speed to burn and was set to leave West Virginia gasping for thin air. But it was the Mountaineers who turned on the afterburners en route to a 31-14 conquest over the Horned Frogs in the 1984 Bluebonnet Bowl.

The large TCU contingent among the 43,260 fans in the Astrodome this evening were dazzled by a balanced offensive display and aerial shellshocking unheard of in the Southwest Conference. The passhappy Mountaineers threw by, around and over the Horned Frogs, for a total of 302 yards passing. The firedup Mountaineers gobbled up another 200-yards rushing.

TCU's vaunted wishbone, which had chewed up ground at a record pace, churned and sputtered out only 92 yards rushing thanks to a stellar Mountaineer defensive effort. AllAmerica halfback Kenneth Davis netted a mere 19 yards, before leaving the game following a bonecrushing tackle by Mountaineer linebacker Matt Smith.

West Virginia rolled up more than 500 yards of total offense and scored from everywhere on the field. John Gay and John Holifield ran for two short scores, while Kevin White named the game's MVP found Ron Wolfley with a fiveyard scoring strike and Gary Mullen with a picture-perfect 62-yard bomb for six. Paul Woodside added four PAT's and a chipshot field goal.

Willie Drewrey sparkled while leading the WVU receiving corps with six catches for 152 yards. In all, eight Mountaineer receivers became successful Kevin White targets as West Virginia won its third bowl game in four seasons.

JOHN HANCOCK SUN BOWL

Oklahoma State	35
West Virginia	33

El Paso, Texas (December 25) -- Bowl Game number 13 proved unlucky for West Virginia as the Mountaineers lost a heartbreaker to Oklahoma State, 35-33, in the snowy, bitter cold Sun Bowl before a crowd of 43,240 and a CBS national television audience on Christmas Day.

The Cowboys and Mountaineers dazzled the shivering crowd with plenty of offensive fireworks and a last ditch WVU effort to tie the game, falling inches short of the goal line on a two-point conversion attempt.

The Mountaineers used a devastating ground game which accounted for 331 yards, and mixed in a few passes for 54 more yards, but the Cowboys answered with 185 yards rushing, 157 by All-American back Thurman Thomas, and 161 yards passing, courtesy of quarterback Mike Gundy.

West Virginia's offensive machine was led by junior running back Anthony Brown, who accounted for 167 yards rushing and two firsthalf touchdowns to give the Mountaineers a 2414 halftime lead. Freshman quarterback Major Harris kept the Cowboy defense guessing as he rushed for 103 yards and passed for 54 more.

On defense, the Mountaineers were led by linebacker Darnell Warren, who returned a secondquarter interception 23 yards for a touchdown and was named the Sun Bowl's most valuable lineman.

SUNKIST FIESTA BOWL

West Virginia	21
Notre Dame	34

Tempe, Ariz. (January 2) -- The overcast sky set the tone of the day for West Virginia as more than 15,000 Mountaineer fans rooted for their team. Notre Dame scored on its first two possessions and held WVU without a first down through the first 20 minutes of the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

On the third play from scrimmage, Major Harris went to the sidelines with a slightly separated left shoulder. He continued to play although hampered by the effects of the injury. In addition to Harris, West Virginia lost John Stroia and Jim Gray to concussions and Undra Johnson to a knee strain, all first half setbacks for the Gold and Blue.

West Virginia's only first half points came off of the foot of Charlie Baumann. He kicked field goals of 29 and 31 yards, making the score 23-6 at the half. WVU struck for a touchdown in the third quarter when Grantis Bell hauled in a Major Harris pass of 17 yards.

Two plays later, momentum seemed to be swinging toward the Mountaineers when Willie Edwards intercepted a Tony Rice pass and returned it 14 yards to the Notre Dame 26. Great games can swing on a few plays being made at the proper time and the Fighting Irish made those plays on this day. Three-straight plays for negative yardage forced West Virginia to punt and "Old Mo" was squarely back on the other side.

Reggie Rembert figured in the Mountaineers' final eight points with a threeyard endaround and the resulting twopoint conversion pass from Greg Jones.

Major Harris passed for 166 yards and one touchdown, but was only able to net 11 yards on the ground. Anthony Brown led the rushing attack with 49 yards.

Dale Jackson led WVU's tacklers with seven stops. Chris Haering and Robert Pickett each chipped in with six.

MAZDA GATOR BOWL

West Virginia	7
Clemson	27

Jacksonville, Fla. (December 30) -- The Mountaineers drew first blood, but the Tigers roared back en route to a 27-7 Clemson victory at the 45th annual Mazda Gator Bowl.

In West Virginia's first possession, Heisman-trophy finalist Major Harris did a splendid job of mixing the run with the pass, marching the Mountaineers down the field on the confused Tiger defense. In all, West Virginia piled up 96 yards on 14 plays, culminating the drive on a Harris to James Jett 12-yard touchdown pass with 6:12 remaining in the first quarter.

For the Mountaineer faithful, however, little remained to cheer for on the evening. After a scoreless first quarter for Clemson, Chris Gardocki opened the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal. After a West Virginia punt, Clemson's ball control offense chewed up 80 yards on 17 plays. The drive ended with a Wesley McFadden one-yard sweep, providing the 10-7 halftime score.

The third quarter saw both team's defenses dominate as neither team was able to sustain a long drive. West Virginia cornerback Preston Waters thwarted a Clemson drive with an interception, while Clemson free safety Robert O'Neal returned the favor on a Harris end zone pass.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Clemson put the game on ice when tailback Joe Henderson outran the Mountaineer left side for a four-yard touchdown with 11:43 remaining.

Harris scrambled in the end zone, desperate to make something happen with only eight minutes remaining, but was stripped of the football by Chester McGlockton, who fell on the ball for the final touchdown.

The Tiger defense allowed West Virginia only 237 yards of total offense. Linebackers Doug Brewster, John Johnson and Ed McDaniel made Harris' final collegiate game a disappointing memory. He finished the game with only 119 yards passing and 17 yards rushing.

A bright spot for the Mountaineers was the play of defensive tackle Mike Fox (seven tackles), who was named the game's defensive MVP for his outstanding play along the line of scrimmage.

Linebacker Chris Haering was credited with 14 tackles, while safety Darrell Whitmore had nine.

USF&G INSURANCE SUGAR BOWL

Florida	41
West Virginia	7

New Orleans, La. (January 1) -- The 1994 Sugar Bowl was to be the crowning achievement of one of the greatest seasons in Mountaineer football annals. A share of the national title, redemption from a 42-19 shellacking in the 1954 Sugar Bowl, and a chance for a perfect 12-0 season were on the minds of Mountaineer faithful that evening at the Superdome.

The No. 8 Florida Gators, with a 10-2 record, were just an afterthought, until Lawrence Wright's 52-yard interception for a touchdown with 9:12 remaining in the second quarter put the Gators up 14-7 on the way to a runaway 41-7 win.

West Virginia got on the board first with a masterful, nine-play, 80-yard opening drive that culminated with a Jake Kelchner to Jay Kearney 32-yard scoring strike. On that drive, Kelchner was brilliant, mixing short passes with inside runs. A key play in the scoring drive was Robert Walker's three-yard gain on fourth and one at the Gator 35 that kept the drive alive.

After exchanging possessions, Florida answered with an impressive drive of its own. Beginning on their own nine, the Gators churned out 91 yards in 12 plays, culminating with an Errict Rhett three-yard touchdown run. A key play in the Gator drive was a personal foul call on the Mountaineers after they had apparently stopped Rhett a yard short of the first down at the Gator 16.

From that point, it was all downhill for West Virginia. Two possessions later, backup quarterback Darren Studstill was hit while attempting a pass, and Wright snared the errant aerial and zigzagged his way 52 yards through the entire Mountaineer team to score the Gators' second touchdown.

After stalling at the Florida 49, West Virginia punted to Florida with 2:55 remaining in the half.

Engineering the two-minute offense to perfection, Gator QB Terry Dean hit three passes before finding Willie Jackson down the sideline for 39 yards and a touchdown that put the Gators up 21-7 at halftime.

At the start of the second half, West Virginia couldn't generate any offense and punted to Florida on its first possession. The Gators further distanced themselves from the Mountaineers by going 80 yards in nine plays to make the score 28-7. Rhett scored his second touchdown of the game by running wide left for the necessary two yards.

On the ensuing kickoff, things got worse for West Virginia when freshman Mike Logan ran into teammate Lovett Purnell and fumbled the football to Florida at the WVU 14. Five plays later, Sugar Bowl MVP Rhett scored his third TD of the game to put the game out of reach. Florida connected on field goals of 43 and 26 yards to round out the scoring.

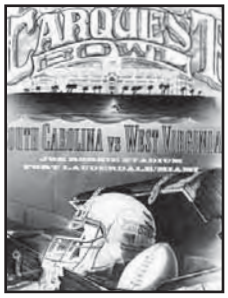
CARQUEST BOWL

South Carolina	24
West Virginia	21



Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (January 2) -- West Virginia saw its late-season, four-game winning streak come to an end in the Carquest Bowl as South Carolina took advantage of costly Mountaineer turnovers and penalties en route to a 24-21 victory.

USC struck first, recovering a WVU fumble on the first play of the game and driving 35 yards for the score. Steve Taneyhill hit Boomer Foster from two yards out, and Reed Morton converted the PAT.

Morton extended the lead to 10-0 early in the second quarter by drilling a bowl-record 47-yard field goal.

WVU finally got on the board when Robert Walker bolted 24 yards for a score. Todd Sauerbrun's PAT cut the lead to 10-7.

USC answered as Taneyhill, the game's MVP, marched the Gamecocks 66 yards in 13 plays, capping the drive by scrambling up the middle to escape the swarming Mountaineer pass rush and scoring from four yards out. Morton's PAT made it 17-7 at the half.

Lovett Purnell got the Mountaineers back within three, snaring a six-yard toss from Chad Johnston on WVU's first drive of the second half.

Following a USC punt, WVU drove to the Carolina 29, but Ben Washington picked off an errant Johnston aerial and returned it to midfield. USC bumped the lead back to 10 when Stanley Pritchett dove in from a yard out.

Once again, the Mountaineers answered the Gamecock score by driving 70 yards in seven plays. Johnston hit a diving Purnell from seven yards, and Sauerbrun's PAT closed the gap to 24-21.

WVU threatened late in the fourth quarter, before being held on downs with 3:52 left. While attempting to run out the clock, Carolina's Pritchett broke free and was heading in for a score when Aaron Beasley came from behind and stripped the ball. Following a mad scramble, WVU took possession at its own three with 1:14 left. However, two incompletions and a sack were all the Mountaineers could muster.

Individually, Johnston was 19-32 through the air for 240 yards and two scores, while Walker had 132 yards on 16 carries. Zach Abraham led the receiving corps with seven catches for 107 yards. Defensive standouts included J.T. Thomas with 11 tackles and a sack and Charles Emanuel and Vann Washington with 10 tackles each.

1997 TOYOTA GATOR BOWL

North Carolina	20
West Virginia	13

Jacksonville, Fla. (January 1) -- The stage was set for a defensive war, West Virginia with the No. 1 defense in the nation against the No. 2 ranked unit of North Carolina. Nearly 20,000 Mountaineer fans made the trek to Jacksonville with hopes of a WVU bowl victory. But the 73-degree temperatures were not enough to warm West Virginia fans' hearts following the 20-13 heartbreaker.

Both squads got off to a slow start as neither team was able to score during the first quarter. The Mountaineers showed their defensive mettle early, holding the vaunted Tar Heel ground attack to 13 yards.

The second quarter saw UNC's Oscar Davenport take over as he quickly put the Tar Heels on the board with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Octavus Barnes. North Carolina then converted a WVU turnover into a field goal. Facing a 10-0 deficit, WVU quarterback Chad Johnston and tailback Alvin Swoope led the West Virginia offense to its only score of the half, a 47-yard field goal by Jay Taylor. Davenport capped off the first half with a five-yard option run to give North Carolina a 17-3 lead at the intermission.

The Mountaineers opened the third quarter with a six-play, 74-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Johnston to David Saunders, who ended the game with nine catches, 130 yards and MVP honors. The Tar Heels could only muster a field goal in the third quarter, and West Virginia was faced with a 20-10 deficit going into the final period.

A stifling WVU defense shut down the Tar Heel offense and gave the ball over to Johnston and the offense early in the quarter, but turnovers and penalties continued to haunt WVU, and the Mountaineers could only manage another 47-yard Taylor field goal to close the scoring.

Amos Zereoue led the ground attack with 63 yards on 21 carries. Johnston passed for 197 yards, but suffered three interceptions for the only time in 1996.

Bernard Russ led the WVU defense with 12 tackles, while consensus All-American Canute Curtis chipped in with six stops, a sack and a pass broken up. Other defensive standouts for the Mountaineers included John Hadley, who posted four tackles, two for loss and a sack, and Elige Longino with six tackles and a sack.

1997 CARQUEST BOWL

Georgia Tech	35
West Virginia	30

Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. (December 29) -- Led by sophomore quarterback Joe Hamilton, who passed and rushed for 356 yards and three touchdowns, Georgia Tech's offense stung the injury-plagued Mountaineers 35-30 in front of a crowd of 28,262 fans at Pro Player Stadium.

Both teams got on the board early. Yellow Jacket fullback Ed Wilder completed Georgia Tech's first drive of the game with a touchdown, but the Mountaineers answered quickly on their first possession. Amos Zereoue topped off the 80-yard drive with a 14-yard scamper into the end zone. Georgia Tech scored again at 2:58 on a 30-yard run by Hamilton, bringing the first quarter score to 14-7.

Georgia Tech opened the second quarter with a 94-yard drive that resulted in a three-yard touchdown pass from Hamilton to Mike Lillie. West Virginia struck back when Jerry Porter snagged a 21-yard touchdown pass from Marc Bulger, but the Yellow Jackets' quarterback wasn't through.

Hamilton closed out the second half scoring with a nine-yard touchdown run and a 28-14 Jacket lead. During the third quarter, West Virginia cut Georgia Tech's lead in half with a 19-yard Zereoue touchdown run, and Jay Taylor's 21-yard field goal edged the Mountaineers even closer at 28-24.

Georgia Tech moved to a two-score lead with a late fourth quarter touchdown by Charles Wiley, but the Mountaineers launched a dramatic comeback effort on their next possession, covering 77 yards in two plays. The 74-yard touchdown pass to Porter from Bulger pulled the Gold and Blue within a touchdown, but time ran out before another score was possible.

Bulger led the Mountaineer offense with 353 yards passing, including two touchdown tosses to Porter, who caught four passes for 124 yards on the day. Shawn Foreman had 110 yards on 12 catches and Zereoue rushed for a game-high 84 yards on 17 attempts.

Senior linebacker Steve Lippe (two TFL) and junior defensive back Dave Lightcap led the defense with 11 and 10 tackles respectively. Gary Stills and John Hadley contributed nine tackles, and Barrett Green added eight.

1998 INSIGHT.COM BOWL

West Virginia	31
Missouri	34

Tucson, Ariz. (December 26) -- Bad luck and the rushing ability of Missouri quarterback Corby Jones were enough to stave off a furious second-half Mountaineer rally as the Tigers outlasted West Virginia 34-31 in the Insight.com Bowl.

WVU moved the ball at will against a seemingly overmatched Mizzou defense early on in the ball game, but a blocked field goal and an interception, that went in and out of the normally sure-handed Shawn Foreman's clutches, led to two Tiger scores and a 14-0 lead that stunned the Mountaineers for the entire first half. West Virginia managed to get a 28-yard field goal from Jay Taylor and headed into the locker room trailing the Tigers 24-3.

A re-focused Mountaineer squad took the field in the second half. The defenses traded blows to start the second half with neither team gaining an advantage.

From that point, West Virginia put on an explosive display of offensive football.

While the first half was a showcase for Missouri's Jones, the second half turned out to be the Marc Bulger show. The junior from Pittsburgh, Pa., set bowl and school records for passing yards in a game with 452.

Riding momentum from a Boo Sensabaugh blocked punt, Bulger hooked-up with David Saunders on a nine-yard touchdown strike to get the Mountaineers into the end zone for the first time in the contest.

Following Jones' third touchdown run of the game, Bulger's surgical precision carved up the Tiger defense to the tune of eight completions during the following WVU drive, including an eight-yard score to Khori Ivy.

As well as West Virginia played in the third quarter, it was merely a sign of things to come. Bulger continued his hot hand during the Mountaineers' first possession of the fourth quarter by connecting with Amos Zereoue out of the backfield for a nine-yard touchdown.

Missouri then took advantage of two costly WVU penalties to get within range for an 18-yard field goal that would be the difference in the game.

Trailing by 10 points, Bulger once again marched West Virginia down the field and cut the Tiger lead to three after hitting Saunders on a one-yard scoring strike with a little more than two minutes remaining in the game.

However, Missouri recovered the attempted onside kick by Taylor and ran out the clock to hold on to a 34-31 decision.

West Virginia was led defensively by junior linebacker Barrett Green, who, despite suffering from injured ribs, registered a team-high 14 tackles. Senior Gary Stills closed out his career with six tackles, including two TFLs and one sack.

Bulger set school bowl records for yards passing (429), passes attempted (50), passes completed (34) and total offense (424). Shawn Foreman set a school bowl record for yards receiving with 189 yards on 11 receptions, while Saunders tied the WVU record for touchdowns in a bowl game with two.

2000 MUSIC CITY BOWL

West Virginia	49
Mississippi	38

Nashville, Tenn. (December 28) -- Sixteen years of bowl frustration came to an end as West Virginia snapped an eight-game bowl losing streak and sent retiring coach Don Nehlen out in style with a 49-38 win over Mississippi in front of 47,719 chilly fans at Adelphia Coliseum.

The 2000 Music City Bowl was one of the greatest ever in the Nehlen era at West Virginia as the Mountaineers built a 49-9 second half lead over the SEC powerhouse and then coasted to the victory.

West Virginia struck quickly on its first possession as quarterback Brad Lewis connected with fullback Wes Ours on a beautifully designed throwback screen. Ours chugged 40 yards down the left sideline and dove into the end zone to give WVU its first lead in a bowl game since 1994.

While Ole Miss managed three Les Binkley field goals, the first half belonged to West Virginia. Senior receiver Khori Ivy made a magnificent one-handed stab on an 11-yard toss from Lewis, followed by two touchdown receptions from fellow receiver Antonio Brown. Brown's first score covered 35 yards and the second went for 60 as the Mountaineers moved out to a 28-9 lead.

With Ole Miss desperately trying to stay in the game, free safety Rick Sherrod intercepted Rebel quarterback Romaro Miller. The interception set up Ours with his second score of the game on a one-yard plunge giving the Mountaineers a 35-9 advantage at the half.

Lewis, healthy for the first time since September, put on a clinic in the first half, completing all seven of his throws for 216 yards and four touchdowns. Of the 19 plays West Virginia ran in the first half, five went for touchdowns.

Second-half action started strong for the Mountaineers as Shawn Terry returned the opening kickoff 99 yards to give the Mountaineers an insurmountable lead. The TD return was the first ever in WVU bowl annals and the longest in Music City Bowl history.

On the next Ole Miss possession, linebacker Corey McIntyre intercepted Miller and returned the ball near midfield.

The quick-striking Mountaineers needed just five plays to find the end zone again as Lewis completed his fifth touchdown pass of the day, hitting Ivy with a 10-yard pass. The five scoring tosses established WVU and Music City Bowl records, while Ivy joined Brown and Ours as the top single-game scorers in Mountaineer bowl history.

Facing a 49-9 deficit, the Rebels mounted a comeback behind backup quarterback Eli Manning=s three scoring tosses, but the game was too far out of reach and the Mountaineers had their first bowl victory since 1984.

Lewis, the game's MVP, completed 15-of-21 passes for 308 yards and five touchdowns. Brown had six catches for 156 yards, Ivy had six catches for 99 yards while Avon Cobourne rushed for 125. Defensively, strong safety Shawn Hackett led the way with 14 tackles as the Mountaineers limited Ole Miss's do-it-all running back Deuce McAllister to just 22 yards on the ground.

All-told, the Mountaineers totaled 432 yards of total offense as the ultra-successful Don Nehlen era at West Virginia came to an end.

2002 CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL

Virginia	48
West Virginia	22

Charlotte, N.C. (December 28) -- Before a sellout crowd of 73,535 at Charlotte's Ericsson Stadium, Virginia used big and trick plays to its advantage in defeating West Virginia 48-22 in the inaugural Continental Tire Bowl.

In what turned out to be the second biggest attendance in history for a first-time bowl, more than 45,000 Mountaineer fans invaded Charlotte to see their 13th-ranked team battle the Cavaliers.

Things started in favor of West Virginia in the first quarter but turned sour in the second. Behind a 27-yard Todd James field goal, and a six-yard Avon Cobourne touchdown run, West Virginia led 10-7 after one quarter and overcame a UVA trick play when backup quarterback Marques Hagans took a lateral from Matt Schaub and completed a 14-yard pass to tailback Wali Lundy for the Cavs' first score.

However, second quarter action saw Virginia take control of the game. Schaub dove in from one-yard out, before Hagans returned a punt 69 yards for another score. Following a UVA interception from a miscued WVU trick reverse, the Mountaineers jumped offsides on a missed Virginia field goal attempt, giving Virginia new life and the Cavs converted late in the second quarter with a Lundy four-yard burst to lead 28-10 at the half.

Virginia upped its advantage in the third quarter on a Schaub 48-yard pass to Lundy and a Connor Hughes field goal. West Virginia did get on the board when Rasheed Marshall dove in from one yard to cap a 13-play, 80-yard drive to cut the deficit to 38-16 heading into the final quarter.

Hughes added a 30-yard field goal early in the fourth, before Cobourne scored his second touchdown of the game at the 7:17 mark to pull the Mountaineers to 41-22. Virginia closed out the scoring, when Lundy scored his fourth touchdown with a 31-yard run for a 48-22 Cavalier victory.

Cobourne rushed for 117 yards and two scores to cap off his fabulous WVU career. He left as the ninth-best rusher in NCAA career history. Marshall passed for 215 yards, and Phil Braxton continued his strong play down the stretch with four catches for 108 yards. Cornerback Lance Frazier topped the defensive effort with 12 tackles, while linebacker Ben Collins added six stops.

Lundy received the MVP award with his 127 yards rushing to go along with 76 yards receiving and four total touchdowns. Schaub passed for 182 yards, and Angelo Crowell topped the Cavalier defensive effort with 12 tackles.

West Virginia, with the nation's second-ranked rushing attack, managed 244 yards on the ground and passed for 215 to total 459 yards of total offense. Virginia posted 195 yards rushing and 196 passing for 391 yards of total offense.

The loss snapped a four-game West Virginia winning streak, and the Mountaineers finished the year at 9-4 and ranked 20th nationally. West Virginia posted a six-game turnaround in the win column from the previous year, one of the best in college football.

TOYOTA GATOR BOWL

Maryland	41
West Virginia	7

Jacksonville, Fla. (January 1) -- No. 23-ranked Maryland captured a 41-7 victory over No. 20-ranked West Virginia in the Toyota Gator Bowl, giving the Terrapins their second victory over the Mountaineers in three months.

The loss broke West Virginia's seven-game winning streak, which had propelled the Mountaineers to a share of the BIG EAST title and the berth in the Gator Bowl.

Maryland jumped out to a quick lead and never looked back. The Terrapins led 24-0 at halftime and tacked on 17 more in the second half.

WVU's only points came in the third quarter when quarterback Rasheed Marshall ran 15 yards for a score. The touchdown capped a six-play, 64-yard drive by the Mountaineers.

The West Virginia running game was led by Kay-Jay Harris with 56 yards. Quincy Wilson capped his stellar Mountaineer career with 49 yards on 12 carries. Marshall rushed for 35 yards and the touchdown and completed 10 passes for 87 yards.

Brian King and Mike Lorello led the defense with 10 tackles each. Consensus All-American linebacker Grant Wiley finished his WVU career with nine tackles and surpassed the great Darryl Talley as the school's all-time leader in career tackles with 492.

The Mountaineers rushed for 155 yards and passed for 86 for 241 yards of total offense. Maryland rushed for 141 yards and passed for 381 to total 522 yards of total offense.

The sellout crowd of 78,892 was the eighth-largest in Gator Bowl history.

TOYOTA GATOR BOWL

Florida State	30
West Virginia	18

Jacksonville, Fla. (Jan. 1) -- No. 17 Florida State defeated No. 23 West Virginia, 30-18, in the 60th Annual Gator Bowl at Alltel Stadium. FSU and former WVU coach Bobby Bowden collected their second victory all-time over the Mountaineers.

In the first two minutes of the game, it looked like the Seminoles would coast as they took a 10-0-lead with 12:51 to play in the first quarter.

Tailback Leon Washington rushed 69 yards on FSU's second play of the game, before the Seminoles recovered an Adam Jones fumble on the ensuing kickoff and converted a 32-yard field goal.

But the Mountaineers were determined to make a game of it and actually erased the 10-point deficit and took the lead before the end of the first quarter.

Playing with severely bruised ribs, quarterback Rasheed Marshall hit tailback KayJay Harris for a 36-yard touchdown to cut the deficit to 10-6.

West Virginia took the lead late in the first when Harris dove in from a yard out for a 12-10 Mountaineer lead.

Early in the second quarter, Florida State Xavier Beitia converted a 28-yard field goal to give the Seminoles a 13-12 lead at the half.

Third-quarter action saw the Seminoles add a 28-yard Beitia field goal, before the Mountaineers closed the deficit to 16-15 behind a 44-yard field goal from Andy Good. The Seminoles then landed a decisive blow at the 3:05 mark of the quarter when Chris Rix connected with Craphonso Thorpe for a 14-yard touchdown pass.

West Virginia answered early in the fourth quarter when Good connected on a 34-yard field goal to pull the Mountaineers within five at 23-18, but the Seminoles followed with a James Coleman 1-yard touchdown run to close out the scoring.

Marshall ended his WVU career in style with 71 yards rushing and 131 passing for 202 yards of total offense. Harris rushed for 134 yards, while Chris Henry hauled in three catches for 61 yards. Linebackers Adam Lehnortt and Kevin McLee led the WVU defense with eight tackles each, while Adam Jones finished with seven stops.

West Virginia rushed for 238 yards on the nation's top ranked rushing defense that went into the game allowing only 69 yards rushing per game. The Mountaineers passed for 191 yards to total 429 yards of total offense. Florida State rushed for an impressive 301 yards to go along with 157 passing to total 458 yards of total offense.

NOKIA SUGAR BOWL

West Virginia	38
Georgia	35

Atlanta, Ga. (January 2, 2006) -- No. 11 West Virginia pulled off one of the biggest upsets of the bowl season with a thrilling 38-35 victory over No. 8 Georgia in the Nokia Sugar Bowl played before 74,458 fans in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The game was moved to Atlanta from New Orleans because of the devastation from Hurricane Katrina.

Freshman Steve Slaton earned game MVP honors, running for a Sugar Bowl record 204 yards and three scores.

Behind a quick-striking offense, the Mountaineers raced to a 28-0 lead in just over a quarter behind two scores from Slaton and Darius Reynaud.

However, the Georgia offense came alive and closed the gap to 31-21 at the half.

Third quarter scoring belonged to the Bulldogs when D.J. Shockley connected with A.J. Bryant for a 34-yard touchdown with 1:51 left in the quarter. West Virginia quieted the Dome with a nine-play, 95-yard drive that ended with Slaton's second 52-yard run of the game for a 38-28 Mountaineer led with 8:32 left.

Georgia answered with a 90-yard drive of its own to put the score at 38-35 with 5:13 remaining.

The Bulldogs never got the ball back as the Mountaineers ran out the remaining five minutes by gaining four first downs, thanks in part to a fake punt by punter Phil Brady that gained 10 yards on 4th-and-6, giving WVU its first BCS victory in school history.

Pat White passed for 120 yards and one score to go along with 77 yards rushing. Mike Lorello led the defense with eight tackles. Georgia totaled 501 yards of total offense, but the Mountaineers countered with 382 on the ground and 120 passing for 502 yards of total offense.

With the victory, West Virginia finished with its third 11-win season in school history and first since 1993. Final rankings put the Mountaineers at No. 5 in the Associated Press poll and No. 6 in the USA Today coaches poll.

TOYOTA GATOR BOWL

West Virginia	38
Georgia Tech	35

Jacksonville, Fla. (January 1, 2007) -- West Virginia stormed back from an 18-point third quarter deficit to claim the 62nd annual Gator Bowl by a thrilling 38-35 count.

The win showcased the talents of quarterback Patrick White, who fought through numerous injuries and willed the Mountaineers to victory. With All-America tailback Steve Slaton's play limited by a thigh bruise coming into the game, White stepped up to earn MVP honors with 145 yards rushing and 131 yards passing while accounting for three touchdowns. Owen Schmitt added a career high 109 yards rushing to WVU's totals as the Mountaineers won their first Gator Bowl in six tries.

On their first possession, it looked like the Mountaineers would have no worries as they marched 80 yards in just four plays to take a 7-0-lead on Schmitt's one-yard plunge. The drive was highlighted by runs of 52 yards by Schmitt and 27 from White.

The Yellow Jackets answered quickly by going to All-America receiver Calvin Johnson, who hauled in the first of his two touchdown receptions when he caught a 31-yard strike from quarterback Taylor Bennett.

Tech took a 14-7 at 3:13 in the first quarter when Tashard Choice rushed in from three yards away. Tech then moved out to a 21-7 lead when Bennett connected with Johnson for a 48-yard TD strike early in the second quarter.

The Mountaineers answered with Pat McAfee's 25-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 21-10 with 9:16 left in the half, but Tech upped its advantage when Bennett hit James Johnson on a 27yard scoring pass to put the score at 28-10.

However, with 1:06 left in the half, West Virginia scored a much-needed touchdown on an 11-yard run from Schmitt to finish off an eight-play, 60-yard drive.

The Mountaineers hoped to cut into the deficit even more with the opening possession of the second half, but Tech surprised everyone by recovering an onsides kick.

The Yellow Jackets capitalized as Choice rushed in from five yards out for a commanding 35-17 Georgia Tech lead.

But West Virginia's next 11 plays in 6:34 will go down as one of the most important stretches in Mountaineer football history. White would not let the Old Gold and Blue quit and put the game on his shoulders to lead the greatest comeback in Gator Bowl history.

Two plays after falling behind 35-17, White hit receiver Tito Gonzales on a 57-yard scoring pass. After the WVU defense held on downs, White went back to the air seven plays later and found Brandon Myles in the corner of the end zone to pull the Mountaineers within 35-31.

With the momentum clearly on WVU's side, McAfee bounced the ensuing kickoff off a Tech defender and the ball was recovered by John Holmes for the Mountaineers. Two plays later, White would not be denied the end zone and scored on a 15-yard scamper to give the Mountaineers a 38-35 edge, sending the huge throng of Mountaineer faithful into a frenzy.

After being shredded by the pass in the first half, the WVU defense came alive and held Tech at bay. White engineered a 10-play drive, carrying eight times to run out the clock to give West Virginia its second straight New Year's Day bowl victory to cap off an 11-2 season.

The second straight 11-win season completed a 25-game, two-year stretch for the Mountaineers with a 22-3 record. West Virginia finished with a 10th-place national ranking in both polls.

TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL

West Virginia	48
Oklahoma	28

Glendale, Ariz. -- (January 2) - Under interim head coach Bill Stewart, West Virginia pulled off the biggest upset in school history by defeating No. 3 Oklahoma 48-28 in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Behind 150 yards rushing and 176 passing from quarterback and bowl offensive MVP Patrick White, the Mountaineers stunned the heavily favored Sooners by rushing for 349 yards to key the victory.

Set up by a Vaughn Rivers 51-yard punt return, West Virginia scored the game's first points, when kicker Pat McAfee connected on a 38-yard field goal in the opening quarter and ran its lead to 6-0 as time in the quarter expired, when McAfee connected on a 42-yard field goal.

Oklahoma's Garret Hartley hit a 37-yard field goal at the 7:46 mark of the second quarter to cut the WVU lead in half.

Owen Schmitt rumbled for a 57-yard touchdown run, the longest in WVU bowl history, to give the Mountaineers a 13-3 lead with 6:23 remaining in the half. Oklahoma answered with a 24-yard Hartley field goal to cut the deficit to 13-6. The Mountaineers managed another score to increase their lead to 20-6 at the half.

That drive was sparked by a 34-yard completion to tailback Noel Devine. White marched the Mountaineers 78 yards in seven plays and ended the drive with a pretty 21-yard pass to a wide open Darius Reynaud.

The Sooners scored the first nine points of the second half, with a field goal from Hartley at the 9:33 mark and then added a Chris Brown one-yard touchdown run. The Sooners went for the two-point conversion, but quarterback Sam Bradford's pass was incomplete, giving WVU a 20-15 lead.

The Sooners tried an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff, that was recovered by WVU's Ridwan Malik.

Taking over at the Oklahoma 39-yard line, it took just six plays to capitalize on the field position as Devine's 17-yard scoring run gave the Mountaineers a 27-15 lead.

West Virginia struck again behind a White 42-yard run and a 30-yard Reynaud reverse for a score, giving WVU a 34-15 lead heading into the final quarter.

The scoring was furious in the final stanza. The Sooners closed the deficit to 34-21, when Bradford hit Quentin Chaney for a 19-yard score, but WVU responded in just one play when White hit receiver Tito Gonzales for a 79-yard scoring strike, raising the Mountaineer lead to 41-21. Bradford then connected with Juaquin Iglesias for a 15-yard touchdown strike to pull the Sooners to 41-28 with 10:14 left, but Devine scored on a 65-yard run at the 9:14 mark, giving the Mountaineers the 48-28 victory.

Devine finished with 108 yards rushing, while linebacker Reed Williams won the defensive MVP honors with nine tackles, two TFL and a forced fumble. For Oklahoma, Bradford passed for 242 yards, Chaney led all receivers with 129 yards, while Curtis Lofton led the defense with 15 tackles.

Final totals showed West Virginia with an impressive 525 yards of total offense, while Oklahoma finished with 419 yards.

The win gave West Virginia its third straight bowl victory and second BCS victory in three years.

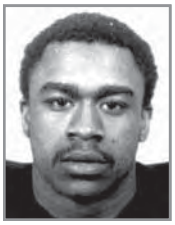
CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

WVU's Consensus All-Americans



Aaron Beasley

Cornerback, 1995

This Pottstown, Pa., native captured first team All-America honors from five different sources during a 1995 season in which he nabbed five interceptions. The year prior as a junior, Beasley led the nation with 10 picks. Of his 19 career interceptions (second all-time at WVU), three went for TDs. A Jim Thorpe and Football News defensive player of the year semifinalist as a senior, Beasley was a third-round selection of the Jacksonville Jaguars and he=s now a member of the Atlanta Falcons.

Bruce Bosley

Tackle, 1955

This Green Bank, W.Va., resident earned consensus All-America honors as a tackle in 1955, ending a 36-year West Virginia consensus drought. A terrific all-around player, Bosley played on the 1954 Sugar Bowl team and helped WVU to a three-year 31-7 mark. A second-round selection by the San Francisco 49ers in 1956, the 1953 Academic All-American was a four-time all-pro as a member of the 49ers during his 13-year NFL career. Bosley was a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

Mike Compton

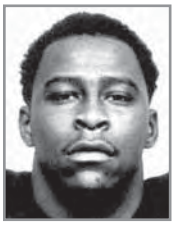
West Virginia's fifth consensus All-American used equal amounts of brains and muscle to gain national acclaim. A native of Richlands, Va., Compton was cited by seven different sources for his consensus tag at center. One of four Rotary Lombardi Award finalists, he was a NCAA Today's Top Six winner and was selected to speak on behalf of all NCAA student-athletes at the 1993 NCAA Convention in Dallas. A third-round pick by the Detroit Lions in 1993, the Academic All-American was a fixture at guard and center for the Lions for eight seasons before moving on to New England, where he won two Super Bowl rings with the Patriots. He is now a member of the Jacksonville Jaguars.



Canute Curtis

Linebacker, 1996

One of West Virginia's most decorated defenders, linebacker Canute Curtis was the anchor of the nation's No. 1-rated defense in 1996. The BIG EAST defensive player of the year and the school's all-time sack leader with 342, the Amityville, N.Y., native was a finalist for the Butkus Award, the Football Writers Association Bronko Nagurski Award and the Football News defensive player of the year. He was a sixth-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals.

Brian Jozwiak

Offensive Tackle, 1985

Mammoth offensive tackle Brian Jozwiak became Coach Don Nehlen's second consensus All-American in 1985. Jozwiak gained consensus status at offensive tackle by earning first team All-America honors from five different sources. The seventh player taken in the 1986 NFL draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, the Catonsville, Md., resident was just the fifth Mountaineer to be taken in the first round of the NFL draft. Jozwiak played three NFL seasons before injury forced him into early retirement.

Dan Mozes

Center, 2006

Dan Mozes was named the Rimington Award winner, signifying the top center in the nation. He helped lead the Mountaineers to two 11-win seasons, two Top 10 final rankings and set the best four-year record in the school's history. Mozes finished with a complete sweep, earning both unanimous and consensus All-America honors. He was a leader on one of the most explosive offenses in college football, ranking No. 2 nationally in rushing, No. 3 in scoring, No. 5 in total offense and No. 6 in fewest sacks allowed. West Virginia averaged 303 yards per game rushing, 38.9 points a game and 461.4 yards per game of total offense. He signed a free agent contract with the Minnesota Vikings.

Ira Errett "Rat" Rodgers

Fullback, 1919

Hailed as one of the nation's finest pre-World War II football players, Ira Errett Rodgers is considered by several historians to be West Virginia's finest all-round athlete. West Virginia's first consensus pick in 1919 at fullback, the Bethany, W.Va., native amassed the single greatest season of any West Virginia player in 1919, leading the nation in scoring with 147 points. National syndicated columnist Grantland Rice labelled Rodgers "the finest all-round football player in the land" that season. Rodgers was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1953.

Todd Sauerbrun

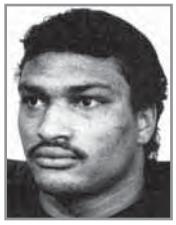
Punter, 1994

Considered among the top punters in NCAA football history, Todd Sauerbrun established an NCAA standard 48.4 punting average in 1994 on the way to consensus All-America status. Sauerbrun also set NCAA marks in career punting average (46.1) and season punts traveling longer than 50 yards (32). The AT&T national Long Distance Award winner earned a clean sweep of All-America teams in 1994 and had one punt travel 90 yards against Nebraska in the Kickoff Classic. The Setauket, N.Y., native was the 56th player taken in the 1995 NFL draft by the Chicago Bears (second round), the highest specialist taken since 1979. He is currently a member of the Kansas City Chiefs and was named to the Walter Camp Football Foundation All-Century College Football Team for the 1900's.

Steve Slaton

Running Back, 2006

This three-year starter was a quick-footed and speedy runner who ran for a school record 1,744 yards and 16 touchdowns in 2006, helping lead the Mountaineers to a second-straight 11-win season. He was second in the nation in all-purpose yards, fourth in rushing yards per game and tied for No. 12 in scoring. Slaton finished with a complete sweep, earning both unanimous and consensus All-America honors. He ran for over 1,000 yards all three years, helping the Mountaineers to three-straight 11-win seasons and Top 10 rankings. While he was at WVU, he finished his career among the Top 10 active players nationally in career rushing yards, career rushing yards per game, career rushing touchdowns, career yards per carry, scoring touchdowns, total points and points per game and all-purpose yards per game. He also was named the most valuable player of the 2006 Sugar Bowl, finishing with a bowl record 204 yards against Georgia.



Darryl Talley

Linebacker, 1982

Coach Don Nehlen's first consensus All-America pick in 1982 (third ever at WVU), linebacker Darryl Talley captured first team All-America status on nine teams that season. A vicious hitter who finished his career as the school=s all-time leading tackler, Talley was among the first great Nehlen players that elevated West Virginia football nationally. Selected in the second round by the Buffalo Bills in 1983, the Cleveland, Ohio, native became a fixture on four Buffalo Super Bowl teams. Talley was a two-time NFL all-pro with the Bills.

Grant Wiley

Linebacker, 2003

Four-year starter who anchored the Mountaineer defense from his linebacker post. Surpassed fellow consensus All-American Darryl Talley to become the school=s all-time leading tackler in 2003. Finished his career with 492 total tackles in becoming WVU=s ninth consensus All-American. The Trappe, Pa., native displayed the knack for making big plays for the Mountaineer defense and finished his career as WVU=s career leader in tackles for loss with 47.5.

WVU HALL OF FAME SELECTIONS

Bruce Lee Bosley

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1982 as a player

West Virginia's second-ever consensus All-American in 1955, Bruce Bosley was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1982. A native of Fresno, Calif., who grew up in Green Bank, W.Va., Bosley played on the 1954 Sugar Bowl team for the Mountaineers. That squad finished as the 10th-ranked team in the nation. He went on to a long and prosperous NFL career with the San Francisco 49ers and Atlanta Falcons for 13 seasons. A four-time Pro Bowl pick in 1960, 1965, 1966 and 1967, Bosley is a member of the San Francisco 49ers all-time team. The 6-2, 240-lb., center retired in 1969. He died April 25, 1995, in San Francisco, Calif.

Robert Lee "Sam" Huff

Pro Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1982 as a player

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1980 as a player

A name synonymous with West Virginia football, Robert Lee "Sam" Huff ranks among the all-time great NFL linebackers. At West Virginia, Huff was a 6-1, 230-lb. tackle before being drafted in the third round by the New York Giants in 1956. Shortly thereafter, the Farmington, W.Va., native became one of the greatest and most publicized linebackers in pro football history and the first defensive football player to make the cover of Time magazine. CBS produced a half-hour pro football documentary entitled "The Violent World of Sam Huff." A fierce competitor and a great rival of Green Bay Packers linebacker Ray Nitsche, Huff earned Pro Bowl status five times, first as a Giant, and then as a Washington Redskin, where he finished his career in 1969. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1980 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1982.

Alfred Earle "Greasy" Neale

Pro Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1969 as a coach

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1967 as a coach

A noted player and coach, "Greasy" Neale's affiliation with West Virginia lasted three years as head football coach from 1931-34. Prior to his stay in Morgantown, Greasy (a nickname he had carried since childhood), was a three-sport standout at West Virginia Wesleyan before embarking on an eight-year major league baseball career with the Cincinnati Reds. While a baseball player, Neale also found time to play professional football in the fall. Upon his retirement as an athlete, Neale became a college coaching gypsy, guiding some of the nation's finest football programs before taking the NFL Philadelphia Eagles coaching job in 1941. Introducing the "naked reverse", man-to-man shifting defenses, the stutter series and a primitive form of the 4-3 defense during his pro football coaching tenure, Neale guided the Eagles to the 1949 NFL title. The Parkersburg native was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1967 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969. He died November 2, 1973, in Lake Worth, Fla.

Donald Eugene "Don" Nehlen

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 2005 as a coach

The winningest coach in WVU history with a 149-43-4 record, Don Nehlen served as Mountaineer head man from 1980-2000. During his 21 years as head coach in Morgantown, Nehlen guided the Mountaineers to 13 bowl games and two bids for national titles playing Notre Dame in the 1989 Fiesta Bowl and Florida in the 1994 Sugar Bowl. He coached 15 firstteam AllAmericans, 82 allconference players and 51 players that went on to play professional football. His resume included coaching stints in the BlueGray, EastWest Shrine and Hula Bowl allstar games and he served as president of the 10,000member American Football Coaches Association in 1997. Nehlen, a twotime national coach of the year in 1988 and 1993, is a member of the MidAmerican Conference, Bowling Green, Gator Bowl and WVU Sports Halls of Fame. He also served as head coach of his alma mater, Bowling Green, from 1968-76, posting a 53-35-4 mark. The native of Canton, Ohio, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

Ira Errett "Rat" Rodgers

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1953 as a player

West Virginia's preeminent all-around athlete, Ira Errett "Rat" Rodgers gained fame as a hard-charging fullback from 1917-19. Called one of "the finest football players in the land" by syndicated columnist Grantland Rice, Rodgers is unanimously considered West Virginia's finest pre-World War II football player. A consensus All-American in 1919, Rodgers gained national notoriety after a 25-0 whipping of Princeton, against which he passed for 162 yards and two touchdowns. For the season Rodgers accounted for 147 points. Later an amateur state golf champion, the Bethany, W.Va., native remained at West Virginia as football (1920-25, 1943-45), baseball (1921-42) and golf coach (1949). Rodgers was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1953. He died February 22, 1963, in Morgantown.

Floyd "Ben" Schwartzwalder

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1982 as a coach

A two-sport letterman at West Virginia in football and wrestling from 1930-32, he achieved great success as a head coach on the prep and collegiate level. He coached high school football for six seasons in West Virginia and Ohio, winning two state championships at Parkersburg (W.Va.), prior to enlisting in the U.S. Army during World War II. Following his discharge, he was the head coach at Muhlenberg (N.J.) College from 1946-48, compiling a 25-5 record. He left there to become head coach at Syracuse, serving as head man there from 1949-73. His teams were an impressive 153-91-3, went to seven bowls, winning the national championship in 1959, and captured four Lambert Trophies (1952, 1956, 1959 and 1966). He was National Coach of the Year in 1959 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1982. He died in 1993 at age 83.

Clarence Wiley "Doc" Spears

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1955 as a coach

A coach at West Virginia from 1921-24, Clarence "Doc" Spears was responsible for developing West Virginia's great football fortunes of the early 1920s. During his coaching tenure in Morgantown, the school played in its first bowl game (East-West) in 1922, produced its first unbeaten team (also 1922), defeated Pitt, 9-6 that 1922 season (considered among the greatest wins in school history) and helped build a football stadium. A cordial and delightful man off the field, Spears was the opposite on it, evoking confrontations with sportswriters, alumni and fans alike. After his brief tenure in Morgantown where he also doubled as a practicing medical doctor, thus earning the nickname "Doc," Spears also coached at Minnesota and Oregon among others, until retiring in 1935 to devote his full time to medicine, practicing in Ypsilanti, Mich. Spears was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1955. He died February 1, 1964, in Jupiter, Fla.

Joseph Lee "Jumbo Joe" Stydahar

Pro Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1967 as a player

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1956 as a player

A brilliant, but under-recognized two-sport athlete at West Virginia until his graduation in 1936, "Jumbo Joe" Stydahar lost that distinction after surprisingly being the first player taken by the Chicago Bears in the 1936 NFL draft -- the first player ever selected by the organization. Born in Kaylor, Pa., and later a standout at Shinnston High (W.Va.), Stydahar was a giant of a man (6-4, 245-lbs.) who became a perennial NFL all-star at tackle. A sixty-minute performer with the "Monsters of the Midway," Stydahar played without a helmet, one of the last performers to do so. He participated on three NFL championship teams with the Bears and was named to the official all-NFL team from 1937-40. He sandwiched a two-year stint in the Navy (1943-44) in the middle of his pro career, which finished in 1946. Following his playing career, Stydahar coached the 1951 Los Angeles Rams to the NFL championship, the organization's first and only title. Stydahar was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1956 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967. He died March 23, 1977, in Beckley, W.Va.

Fielding Harris "Hurry Up" Yost

College Football Hall of Fame

Inducted: 1951 as a coach

Always in a hurry, thus the nickname "Hurry Up," Fielding Harris Yost gained national acclaim as a college football coach at Michigan at the turn of the century. Yost's travels included a stop at West Virginia, where he earned a law degree and played football in 1895-96. After his two years at WVU, the Fairview, W.Va., native took the Michigan coaching job at age 30 in 1900. Four years later, he showed his appreciation for his alma mater at West Virginia by beating the Mountaineers 130-0, a score that didn't endear him to the West Virginia faithful. That 1904 Michigan squad was called the "Point-A-Minute" team. Later the athletic director at Michigan, he was singularly instrumental in building the nation's largest football stadium at Michigan. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951. He died August 20, 1946, in Ann Arbor, Mich.

ED PASTILONG

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

It is truly a great time to be a Mountaineer. Just ask West Virginia University Director of Athletics Ed Pastilong. Never has total athletic success befallen Morgantown quite like it has over the last five years. And it's all happened under Pastilong's watch.

During his 19-year tenure, Pastilong has spearheaded WVU's growth into one of the nation's finest athletic departments on and off the playing fields as it competes in 17 varsity sports.

He's done this through leadership efforts in meeting the demands of running a top-tier organization by keeping up with the times. His vision has helped guide, mold and shape the student-athlete experience into a positive one here at WVU through a successful, across-the-board, total athletic program.

During his tenure, Pastilong has spearheaded more than $65 million in facility renovations, witnessed the department's budget increase from $20 million to more than $40 million, steered WVU into the BIG EAST football conference in 1991 and into full-fledged member status in the league in 1995. He also initiated the Athletic Director's Academic Honor Roll, where more than 3,600 student-athletes have been recognized for outstanding work in the classroom, and the WVU Sports Hall of Fame, where 115 former Mountaineers have been so honored.

The facility upgrades and capital improvements alone have been staggering. Since 1989, WVU has made tremendous strides to its football facility, Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium. Suites to three sides of the stadium, Touchdown Terrace, the Caperton Indoor Practice Facility, new locker rooms, the Reynolds Family Academic Center and the Donald J. Brohard Hall of Traditions highlight the making of WVU's football facility into one of the nation's finest.

Other facility improvements under Pastilong's tenure include renovations to the WVU Coliseum and Hawley Field and the construction of Dick Dlesk Soccer Stadium, Cary Gym for Mountaineer Gymnastics and a state-of-the-art wrestling facility. And a new basketball practice facility is on the horizon in the near future.

On the playing fields, the last five years have arguably been the most successful in the history of West Virginia University athletics. As proof, look no farther than WVU's No. 30 national ranking in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup, the school's best-ever finish.

Success hasn't just been limited to the field, either, as community service has also been at the forefront of WVU's recent successes. All of WVU's sports are involved in various levels of community service from the football team and its affiliation with the WVU Children's Hospital to the women's basketball and gymnastics teams being involved in Breast Cancer Awareness through national "Think Pink" Initiatives. Other varsity sports volunteer their time at local elementary schools' read-a-louds and at other various community service initiatives. There's no doubt that West Virginia University is currently experiencing a Golden Era. With great leadership, tremendous insight and a heartwarming personality, Ed Pastilong can proudly claim it all happened on his watch.

Pastilong joined the athletic department as football recruiting coordinator in 1976 and two years later became its scholarship officer.

In 1979, he was named assistant athletic director for facilities and operations. He spearheaded the planning and management of all home athletic contests, as well as the scheduling and the maintenance of the Coliseum and stadium; Pastilong was also on the board for the planning and building of Mountaineer Field. He remained director of athletic facilities until his promotion to associate athletic director in 1987.

Prior to West Virginia, Pastilong served football coaching stints at Scott High in Madison, W.Va., and at Salem College, where he tutored the Tigers from 1969-75, winning more games than any other West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference team during that period. He was also the school's dean of health and physical education from 1972-75.

He received his bachelor's degree from WVU in physical education in 1966, and later earned a master's degree from WVU. As a Mountaineer player, Pastilong lettered in 1964 and 1965, completing 37 of 115 passes for 728 yards and six touchdowns.

Pastilong and his wife, Mona, have two daughters – Kim DeFelice and her husband, Anthony, and Amy Richter and her husband, Pat, and four grandsons, Michael and Nick DeFelice and Ryan and Shawn Richter.

MOUNTAINEER ATHLETIC CLUB

The Mountaineer Athletic Club is the fundraising organization within the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics at West Virginia University. Mountaineer Athletic Club funds are invested and administered by the WVU Foundation. The MAC's mission is to provide annual scholarship support to West Virginia University student-athletes and raise private support for capital projects, endowments and other needs as prioritized by the WVU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Annual Giving & Season Ticket Priority

By participating as a MAC donor through the ticket priority program, you not only receive exclusive benefits but also play an important role in ensuring the quality of the athletic program.

Annual gifts enhance season ticket sales, provide financial support for the scholarship program and assure MAC donors' season-to-season preferred seating in football and men's basketball.

For information on the MAC Annual Giving and Ticket Priority programs, call 1-800-433-2072 or visit MountaineerAthleticClub.com.

Capital Improvements

West Virginia University has embarked on an aggressive athletic facilities capital improvement plan.

This investment will improve recruiting, allow WVU teams to be competitive at a higher level and increase revenue opportunities while enhancing fan comfort.

Supporting Our Olympic Sports

Currently, WVU sponsors 17 varsity sports, and similar to major gifts, contributions to our Olympic sports (Baseball, Women's Basketball, Women's Cross Country and Track, Gymnastics, Rifle, Rowing, Men's Soccer, Women's Soccer, Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving, Women's Tennis, Volleyball and Wrestling) are tax-deductible. Our coaches and student-athletes in these sports rely on private support for locker room improvements, equipment purchases and many other expenses not covered in their operating budgets.

1100 Club

The goal of the 1100 Club is to provide a significant portion of the resources necessary to successfully recruit blue-chip football student-athletes at the regional and national level. Membership has grown to more than 350 members who give a minimum of $1,100 annually to support this pursuit of excellence. These funds help offset the escalating costs associated specifically with airplane travel during NCAA-sanctioned football recruiting periods. Members of the 1100 Club take pride knowing that their involvement truly has an impact on WVU's quest for BIG EAST and national championships and Awinning the right way.

All-American Society

Recognition in the MAC's All-American is reserved exclusively for those who have gone the extra mile in support of the Mountaineers. All major gifts and pledges benefitting the intercollegiate athletic program at WVU, above and beyond ticket priorities, at $50,000 and above qualify for involvement.

Endowed Scholarships

Increasing the athletic scholarship endowment for student-athletes at West Virginia University will allow Mountaineer coaches to continue to recruit the highest caliber athletes, while offsetting the rising costs of tuition. Endowing a scholarship creates a sense of pride, knowing that you have helped fund not only a student-athlete's education, but also his or her athletic dream.

Jerry West Society

Formed in 1996 in honor of WVU's most famous athlete, the Jerry West Society offers exclusive membership to those who make commitments of support to the MAC in the form of planned gifts. Qualifying support includes bequests, trusts, annuities, directed retirement assets, life insurance and real estate. The MAC can provide you the necessary language to ensure that your planned gift intentions are clearly expressed.

WVU Varsity Club

WVU athletic history dates back to a fall day in 1891 when a less-than-well organized group of University students gathered in a pasture outside of town to take on Washington & Jefferson in a sport called football. Baseball and basketball soon followed, offering many deserving student-athletes the chance to proudly wear the Old Gold and Blue. Today, former Mountaineers number in the thousands and the WVU Varsity Club provides a way for all former WVU student-athletes and coaches to remain in contact with their athletic program, team and teammates.

Basketball Legacy Fund

The Basketball Legacy Fund was created to enhance all things basketball and enable WVU's men's and women's teams to better compete for conference and national championships. Legacy Fund gifts are primarily utilized to enhance recruiting efforts via charter airplane travel for our coaching staffs (similar to the mission of Football's 1100 Club). In addition to supplementing travel during sanctioned NCAA recruiting periods, proceeds to the Basketball Legacy Fund may also be used for facility and locker room improvements.

Wheels Club

The Wheels Club is comprised of automobile dealers who donate the use of vehicles to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics for use in recruiting and travel by the Mountaineer staff. Wheels Club donors receive MAC benefits and are recognized at the Director level within the MAC Annual Giving and Season Ticket Priority program.

Coaches Caravan

The annual Coaches Caravan includes stops across the state and region that enable WVU fans to meet with WVU coaches, student-athletes and athletic staff members in a casual environment.

Front Row

This quarterly magazine is offered exclusively to all MAC donors who give $100 or more to any of the programs noted during the fiscal year in which the gift is made.

For more the latest news and updates on the Mountaineers or for information on the MAC Annual Giving and Ticket Priority programs, call 1-800-433-2072 or visitMountaineerAthleticClub.com.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Credentials:

Following are some guidelines for covering the 2008 Mountaineers.

CREDENTIALS:

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials to cover West Virginia's 2008 home football games must be made in writing on company letterhead at least two weeks prior to the game. Requests the week of the game will be honored only if space permits and will not be mailed; those credentials will be left at the "Will Call" window at the North ticket booth.

Due to the demand for working credentials, media regularly assigned to cover WVU and the visiting school will receive priority.

All photographers must work outside the 30-yard lines as prescribed by the NCAA; they are not permitted in the bench area. Photographers must sign in for a field access credential in the press box prior to each game.

No children (age 16 and under) are allowed on the sidelines for any reason; any children on the sidelines will be ejected, along with their guardians, from the stadium. Any abuse of a working credential to West Virginia football games can result in the media agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of 2008 and possibly the entire 2009 home season.

AFTER THE GAME:

Coach Bill Stewart will conduct a postgame press conference in the media room adjacent to the WVU locker room; Stewart's press conference is also heard over the press box PA. Requested WVU players will also be available. No media will be granted access to the West Virginia locker room.

DURING THE WEEK:

Coach Bill Stewart will meet with the media each Tuesday afternoon in the Team Room at Mountaineer Field. He will be available on the BIG EAST weekly conference call each Monday at 11:30 a.m., and will also wrap up the previous week's game on Sunday afternoons in a conference call; contact the WVU sports communications office for information.

Mountaineer players will be available for interviews each Tuesday during the dinner hour; Tuesday during dinner is also the best time for players to return calls to out-of-town media. They will also be available to return phone calls on Wednesday as class and practice schedules permit. Any special arrangements for player interviews should be made through Director of Football Communications Mike Montoro at least a day in advance. Players will not be asked to miss class or study hall for interviews and at no time will a player's home number be given to the press.

No player interviews will be conducted during practice sessions. The practice and interview schedule for preseason camp and game weeks will be announced in August.

DIRECTIONS TO PRESS PARKING AREA
(RED AND BROWN LOTS)

From I-79:

Take the Star City/WVU exit. Cross the Star City bridge and proceed up Monongahela Boulevard toward the Coliseum. At the Coliseum traffic light, turn left onto Patteson Drive. At the second traffic light, turn right onto University Avenue and proceed up the hill to the WVU Law School. This is the location of the Red and Brown parking areas. A shuttle van runs continuously from the media lots to the press box.

From I-68:

Take the Pierpont Road exit and follow signs to the stadium. At the second traffic light off the interstate, turn left and travel up Easton Hill. Count two more traffic lights and turn right on Route 705 and stay on this highway as it becomes Chestnut Ridge Road. Turn left at the sixth traffic light onto Van Voorhis Road, and make another left at the second traffic light onto University Ave. Proceed up the hill to the WVU Law School. This is the location of the Red and Brown parking areas. A shuttle van runs continuously from the media lots to the press box.
